Student Groups Choose New Officers, Members

New officers of the Student Bar Association are Ben Kizer, president; Dick Robertson, vice-president; Frank Winston, secretary; and Bob Weiss, Treasurer.

New officers of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity are H. Rex Moody, magister; Frank Winston, exchequer; Tim Schaeffer, clerk; Willard Kittrell, custodian; and Jim Lane, historian.

Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity during the past quarter initiated Richard Staples and Ralph Longmire as new members, and elected Donald Aaron, president; Gaines Tyler, vice-president; James Hawk, treasurer; and Cletus McWilliams, clerk.

The Student Bar Association is currently sponsoring a lecture series presented by prominent attorneys, on Trial and Appellate Practice. Taylor Cox has given one lecture, and the next will be given by Stewart Dye.

Facilities and accommodations of the Moot Courtroom in the new College of Law Building are proving a real asset to law students learning practical court procedure. The modern auditorium is one of the busiest on the U-T campus.

Student Bar Makes Plans For Law Day On May 10; Invites Appellate Judges

Under the sponsorship of the Student Bar Association, plans are being made for a Law Day to be held on Saturday, May 10. Tentative plans include moot court arguments before judges of Tennessee appellate courts.

Plans for the Law Day also include a dinner-dance to be held at Holston Hills Country Club. The judges of the moot court argument will be honor guests, and will announce their decision on the moot court case. Awards will be made to participants. Members of the student editorial board of the Tennessee Law Review will receive their certificates, and newly elected members of The Order of The Coif will be announced.

Tickets will be $7.00 per couple. They may be obtained from Keller Smith, Tate M. Carty or C. B. McClain, members of the committee appointed by the Knoxville Bar to assist in preparations, or by writing Dick Robertson, c/o the College of Law. Ticket sales will end April 26. Keep May 10 open and make your reservations early.

Admission Requirements Raised

Requirements for admission to the College of Law, effective September 1, 1952, will be increased from two to three years of acceptable college work in compliance with the amendment to the bar admission rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Tennessee on March 9, 1951, and with the recently increased standards of both the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools.

see Bar Association at Jackson on February 8, 1952.

The College of Law was represented at the annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools, held in December at Denver, Colo., by Professor Miller. Professor Miller is chairman of the association Committee on Legal Aid Clinics and presided at the Round Table Meeting on Legal Clinics held at the meeting.

Professor Miller will serve as visiting professor of law at the University of Puerto Rico College of Law, Rio Piedras, P. R., during the first term of the 1952 Summer Session. He will assist in organizing a legal clinic and teach clinic method and technique.

In October, Professor Miller spoke on the "Use of Fines as a Release Procedure" before the Division of Probation and Parole of the International Congress of Correction at Biloxi, Miss. The International Congress of Correction is an international association of agencies concerned with problems and methods of correction.

Comments By Law Faculty And State Bench And Bar Featured At Law Institute

The Twelfth Annual Law Institute, sponsored by the University of Tennessee College of Law and its alumni, was held Friday, November 30, 1951 in the College of Law Building. Members of the faculty spoke on the following topics: Dean Wicker — Jury Panels in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee; Professor Baugh — Selecting a Jury in the Circuit and Criminal Courts of Tennessee; Professor Overton — Broadening the Basis of In Personam Jurisdiction in Tennessee; Professor Miller — Current Problems in the Administration of Criminal Justice in Tennessee. Those addresses appear in the February issue of the Tennessee Law Review.

In addition to the principal speakers, each address was followed by a commentary by two outstanding members of the Tennessee Judiciary or Bar.
