Mr. Kirkman came in. Asked him about shelving for Librarian's room. Said if we had new it would have to be built. suggested various rearrangements of shelving in Room 13. Said material for new stacks in Carnegie Lib. had just come and there might be some discarded shelving from there. Dean McDermott would have to request purchase of erection of shelving; apropos of engravings & belonging to law school, he would like to have some of the students go to Y. M. C. A. store room with him as he had also some there belonging to literary societies etc.
