Law Library Record

Session 1923/24

Preliminary work.

E. L. Ogden made first visit to Library on Thursday Sept. 13 and spent several hours there on Thurs. Fri & Sat and most of the day on Mon and Tues. H.H. Turner began regular hours 8 to 1 on Monday Sept.17. Registration began on that day and continued through Wednesday. Notices were posted, consultations held on hours of opening and other matters, much cleaning done and sufficient shifting of books to shelves accessions by purchase, gift and loan. Returning students were shown changes in arrangement and new sets added. Tables (all but 3) had been removed for use in registration. A damp and musty smell prevailed, desk was opened with difficulty, tables stood unevenly on swelled flooring and some of the books were damp with mold. Systematic wiping of all books & shelves was finished in about two-thirds of the Reading room by H.H. Turner, and part of Room 13 by E. L. Ogden by Tuesday PM closing. (4:30) Hours decided on at present, E. L. O., Monday, Tues. Wed. Friday, 1 - 5:30 P. M., Thurs. 11 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. Saturday, 1 - 4 P. M.. H. H. T. 8 to 1 except on Thurs., 8 - 11. Miss Baker asked to have registration cards filled out, and as these are practically promises on the part of the student to conform to rules, a tentative draft of rules was submitted to Miss Baker for approval. Supplies obtained were 200 cat. cards, 200 borrowers cards, a handful of rubber bands, and about twenty five guide cards. Superseded volumes were sold for waste paper to D. W. Hughes & Co., bringing $1.50 (rate 50¢ per 100 pounds) phone 2768. Volumes of no legal interest found in the law library Sept. 1921 and stored there since that time were taken from shelves to send to Carnegie Library.

By closing time Tuesday afternoon purchased accessions had been recorded, temporary entries made for Judge Sanford's gifts and all accessions had been shelves in permanent locations, as far as possible. This involved considerable shifting in Room 13 the acquisition of one set wall shelving in the library office and arrangements for building additional shelving there and in the Reading Room. Notice was received that a catalog case - 5 drawers- and a display case had been ordered, bills of lading just received.

University opens formally at 10 A. M. but registration continues but law school lectures not to begin until Thursday. Copied list of books given by Judge Sanford. Attended opening Exercises of University when building was closed for this purpose. Explained use of library to several new students. Began copying list of books loaned by Judge Jones.

1 P. M. to 5 P. M.

E. L. Ogden

Came about 11:30. Worked on furniture washing inkspots from tables and mold from chairs (but not very thoroughly). cleaned several sections of books in Reading room. found C. J. & Cyc especially badly molded & the later damp to touch and binder's labels peeling off. Large tables were brought back much defaced with paint of various colors - Janitors promised to scrub these by morning.- Textbooks selected last year to keep in Library office were collected from shelves & from closet, periodical and pamphlet mail attended to. Miss Baker brought Miss Montgomery (Engineering Lib. - new) for a few minutes. Secured cane chairs to supplement oak chair supply and at 5:30, shelves and seating arrangements were in order and ready for use. A few students, old and new came in to look at the library and information was given as to new books, and general arrangement.

Made brief entry author cards for books lent by Judge Jones. Asked janitor to bring back wastebasket and to ask Mr. Kirkman what was to be done about long tables - janitor said he could not get paint off by scrubbing. Asked H. H. T. to phone to Carnegie Lib. inquiring when we could expect Tenn. report vols. ordered to replace lost vols. Dean McDermott & Mr. Muir came in - latter brought the mail. - former said he would ask to have it brought regularly by janitor.

P.S. Miss Baker could not find record of order. Will look up and report later.

Made list of books in librarian's office. Janitor came and removed books for cataloguing. Several conferences in regard to early Saturday closing, between Dean, Mr. Kirkman, janitor etc. More or less futile, resulted in having it closed for the present [during football period], at 2.30, accordingly Dean requested notices put up to this effect. Dean and Mr. Baker both desire bound volumes of Harvard Law Review placed in a more conspicuous spot as their contents are to be used by students as assigned collateral reading, and ought to be more accessible. Dean wants Miss Ogden ["please ma'am"] to borrow the Life of John Marshall from the Carnegie Library, as "invaluable for collateral reading." Received stationary of Law Review to be called for by Mr. Baker. Wrote rough draft of article for Orange and White in regard to Judge Jones' books.

books borrowed for use in library. Reporter from Orange and White came for contribution and said that he would bring information for future arrangements. The Dean desires that the door of Room 13 be kept open in future except when it is being used for intensive study or there is needed a greater degree of quiet than can otherwise be secured. Those in charge of reading room are asked to see that this is done and that all conversation of a foreign nature be discouraged! Copied list of volumes in librarian's office. Ass'n of law libraries and that the Dean wants the count this year to include the no.of vols. of state reports represented by the Nat'l reporter system. Volunteered to try to find a standard legal directory of last year to see what was published for U of Tenn. law library. Perhaps Knox. Bar Ass'n Lib. has one. Began the calculation of vols.
