Prepared statement of shelf measurements for Miss Baker also asked whether she could tell me approximately amount of funds used for subscription. Prepared a memo for the Dean asking approval for subscription for Fletcher's Cyc. Corporations, suppl; Martindale's directory; Federated statutes, annual supplements; Shepard's citations. Shelving asked: 2 sets wall shelving- outside measurements: height, approximately 7ft 10 1/2 in, length, 3ft 8 in., depth 10 in (or 10 1/8 with back. To consist of a base 7 in high; 7 shelves with top; clear space between shelves 12 in.; a back of compo board or any light cheap material; approximate 1/8 in thick; base, shelves, sides & top to be of dressed boards at least 1/2 in. thick, stained dark oak. Many students to ask about grades.

Miss Baker came and said two stacks like our old ones were ready to be brought over. E. L. O. asked to wait until May 30, afternoon as last exam. was to be held in the morning. Measured shelves and left with Miss Baker a memo of pasteboard strips wanted for keeping on top of books to keep them clean. 140 strips 34 x 9 in; 227 strips, 35 1/2 x 9 in. 25 strips 43 1/2 x 9 in. [in left margin] allowed 1/2 in. for easy slipping - this included shelf space of new stacks.

Closed library doors to public at 1 P.M. Shifted books to new stacks and straightened up generally. Took down books for binding. and R. C. L. (whole set) and Encyclopedic digest (whole set) ready to go to Univ. Library.

Mr. Key is editor of Tenn. Law Rev. next year. He will keep all exchanges during the summer for Law Library in the Fall-

Monday June 2 1924

[E. L. Ogden]

Arrived at Carnegie Lib. about 10.- Left law library 12:15. Miss Baker arranged to have
R. C. L. +c called for Tuesday morning. Thought it best to postpone binding of Proc. Ass'n Amer. Law libraries until Fall when whole set will probably be completed. Would ask P.O. to send second class matter addressed to the Law Library to Carnegie Lib. instead. Will transfer to Law Library shelf list all books listed in inquiry of May 28 except Beveridges Life of Marshall- which was placed with books to go to Carnegie Library. Sorted and tied up periodicals straightened books in Reading Room.

Report-

A full copy of Report Sept. 18, 1923 - June 1924 is filed with "Reports" in desk so no summary is made here. ~~except of statistics~~. Statistics are recorded on "Library Procedure" cards also.

The report was finished at home, statistics completed +c - and finally submitted
Went to Law Library several times after June 2 to put things away and pack up.

Tuesday, Sept. 9-

E. L. Ogden came 11-12- Found conditions much better than at this time last year. Books cleaner, not moldy, floors just mopped- Tables in fair condition though some need another wash & all would be better for a polish- Some have been taken away to use for registration. Got keys from Miss Baker- She will send over books & other material accumulated in summer on Monday or Tues- Regular hours will begin in Law Lib. Thurs., Dean agrees- Saw Dean McDermott- Schedules not yet ready. Dusted-

Came two more days, spent mostly in dusting, getting out of closet equipment stored in summer, cleaned & polished desk and office chair with O-Cedar etc.- As Miss Baker had no one to look after the Agricultural library on the farm, E. L. O. agreed to put in full time there until some one could be secured, leaving the law lib. to the care of H. M. {sic} Turner and a substitute to be arranged for by Miss Baker. E. L. O took up regular work in the Law Lib. ~~Tues~~ Thurs. P.M. Oct. 2, but went to the Farm mornings of Oct. 2, 3, 4, to help the new girl get started-

Monday Sept 15. 1924.

{H. H. T} At Miss Baker's request didn't open library, but had conference with her at Carnegie. H. H. T. was asked to take temporary charge of law library, as Miss Ogden has been transferred to Agricultural library. Attendance for afternoon hours will be arranged after this week, and no evening opening at present. Desk blotter, duster, and flash light were ~~given~~ furnished.

Tuesday Sept. 16. 1924.

9 - 12 H. H. Turner.

At Miss Baker's suggestion library will not be opened regularly until ~~tomorrow~~ Thursday. Dusted and replaced tables and chairs, put books in display case. Saw students and new members of faculty. Explained to Dean McDermott about change in lib. staff. Received from Carnegie Library

Dear Miss Baker,

When we moved the cases down here last spring you told me that you had seen ~~the~~ Mr. Kirkman about lights and he said he would have the necessary changes made- Nothing has been done about it. Perhaps he is waiting for a formal order-

E. L. Ogden-

{Miss Baker's reply written at the top of the same slip of paper}

He has it through the proper channels. We will have to be patient awhile longer. MEB

Will try to get the pams to you soon. Have our waste baskets returned?

Dean announced all day holiday Friday "every one being expected to attend exercises of Ed. Society." He supposed library would be closed as students would not be encouraged to use it under the circumstances. Chairs had to be taken out of the closet as both rooms were crowded for one hour. Worked on scrap book index. 3 Alumni ('24) Powell, Sanford, Swanner called to see the Dean and "look around." A great deal of noise, had to keep calling down and I finally invited a group to adjourn; all perfectly pleasant on both sides, however. Dean gave H. H. T. few helpful hints in case strange visitors made enquiries. Every one to be referred to him and an eye kept for spies and "snoopers." {in margin: "see daily papers"} Judge Jones is afraid law lib. staff don't get any time to eat!

Rec'd Handbook and Proc. National Conference on uniform laws, 1924, Took it to main lib. to be catalogued. Learned that a student had taken Hammon on Contracts home without permission. Got Dean Massey's clerk to phone him to return the book which he did by messenger asking to have it reserved for him at 4:30. Did not do this as some one else wanted it and was doubtful whether the first could be trusted to bring it back. Am letting reserved books go at 4:30 if not in use and sometimes if in use when the person using them does not object-

Rec'd. 124 N. E. Worked on scrap book. Index

Saturday January 31. 1925

8 - 9:30 H. H. Turner.

Basement of Ayre's Hall being almost without heat, Miss Baker ordered law lib. closed and notice posted to that effect, as all exams. were over. 2 students came during interval, but not to study. Miss Baker asked H. H. T. to give her list of night attendance, and also report same to Dean as she feels that this small number using lib. in eve. doesn't justify its continued opening.
