[note from H. H. Turner to E. L. Ogden clipped into record for this day]:

Lucy: There has been so much trouble lately keeping order that I am trying a new plan, after talking with the Dean. Go to door once & say "I will have to ask you to keep quiet," thus noting who offenders are & who are studying. If noise is resumed take no [inserted above] notice whatever but write down names & turn in to Dean as I go off duty & he will do the rest! The students have been so informed. Since grades were posted a certain group of low graders have been acting up. H. H. T.

Worked on scrap book index. H. H. T., having tried to execute some feats on Cumberland Ave. , where digging is going on, at about 7:45 a.m., was finally sent down to infirmary for first aid at 9, Miss Williams, taking her place. Miss Baker sent word that she go home if necessary, but blood being the only feature of business, offer declined with thanks. Dean + sev[eral] students likewise assisted with advice.

Rec'd. 2 Texas Law Review (bound)

In response to note from Miss Baker concerning statistics for President's annual statement-compiled the following for Sept. 17, 1924 - Apr 21, '25

Circulation for home use (students) 336

Borrowers registered (students) 58

Books added 84

" withdrawn, no record kept as the Univ. Libr. has been notified in each instance.
 Not more than three or four I should say. Equipment needed (urgent) (1) Library Bureau tables (5 or more); (2) Library Bureau chairs (12 or more) (3) Telephone (4) Floor covering to lessen noise, linoleum or cork; (5) Lights - more and differently placed. Of these, 1,2,3 and 5 are repeated from last year's recommendations; Several sets of books are urgently needed.- Federal Reporter 300 volumes; English Reports, Columbia Law Review especially.
