In the morning talked with Miss Baker about clearing out duplicates and arranging for identification marks etc to go on books not yet catalogued. It appears probable that the Law College will be located in Tenn. Hall next year and that a good many books will be purchased this summer. Took inventory of Room 15 & Lib. Office and of text books in Room 13, and did other things toward straightening things up. Mr. Buhl came in and got together Tenn. Law Review for the Univ. Lib. with exception of one number which he thinks he has at home and will bring.

Holdsworth's history of English Law v. 1 is still in Dean McDermott's hands.

Mich. Law Review no. 5, 1926 not returned by Mr. Wicker and Columbia Law Rev, in use for reprinting has not been returned.

Cleared out duplicates from closets ~~north south~~ of entrance corridor and got some from shelves, sorting with a view to substitution of vols in good condition for worn catalogued copies and to sorting those vols. of possible value for sale from those of use only for waste paper.

June 9 -18 -

Was at the library at various times sorting an listing duplicates etc. Sold 55¢ worth of waste paper. Sent to Univ. Library (Carnegie) the following duplicates for sale or exchange: Others were left on tables and not attended to till September. Annual report was not finished but a list of suggestions for purchase was given Miss Baker in the course of the summer.

Volumes sent to Carnegie Library for disposal. Many of these had stood on the shelves but had not been counted in the reported total.

Miss Ogden Sept. 1926

We counted 10 vols added in June and 20 in Sept. so just add 10 to your total for the year and begin with Sept. again. Your total June 30 was 5125. You made a mistake on your May slip. It should read 5115 not 6015.
