GCT GEARS UP FOR FALL

The fall season brings to everyone a change in the weather, but at the College of Law there will be more changes than usual. All of the changes are exciting and something we all are looking forward to with anticipation, challenge, and hope. Let's make it a rewarding year!

PAT HARDIN APPOINTED ASSOCIATE DEAN; MARY JO HOOVER EXTENDS LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Professor Pat Hardin has accepted a half-time appointment as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Administration. He will assume many of the responsibilities formerly held by the newly-appointed Acting Dean, John Sebert. Pat will also be in charge of many of the duties normally undertaken by Associate Dean Mary Jo Hoover, who has extended her leave for the 1986-87 academic year to help develop a new computerized student information system for UT. Associate Dean Pat Hardin's duties will include student academic counseling and advising, curriculum planning, faculty affairs, chairing the building committee, and assisting with budget preparation and allocation. He will also teach one course each term.

Associate Dean Julie Hardin will continue to oversee alumni affairs and development, public relations, and the activities of the Public Law Institute. In addition, she will work with the various student organizations, coordinate Law Week and year-end academic and service recognition activities, and supervise the production of the Law College bulletin.

Assistant Dean Doug Wells will be responsible for the admissions program, financial aid, transfer evaluations, and coordination of the tutorial program. He will also share with Dean Pat Hardin some of the student academic affairs and advising duties and will coordinate the College of Law's participation in the Pre-Professional Training Program, as well as undertake other responsibilities of general administration.

MAY WE INTRODUCE

RHONDA MATTINGLY:
SENIOR SECRETARY
DEAN'S OFFICE

Rhonda spent the last five years with the ALCOA Apprenticeship Program at the Aluminum Company of America through State Tech at Knoxville. While working there she met her husband, David, who is a supervisor in the maintenance department. David and Rhonda have been married four years, live on a mini-farm in Maryville, and have a poodle named Christy, six cows, one horse, and three children. Her hobbies include working outside as much as possible, restoring antique trucks, fishing, and remodeling houses. We're happy she has time to work with us. Welcome, Rhonda!

C.J. THURSTON:
SENIOR SECRETARY
BUSINESS OFFICE

CJ was born and raised in Arkansas. She moved to Knoxville in September 1985 with husband Paul, who is a GTA in Mathematics at The University of Tennessee. She enjoys swimming and almost all other outdoor activities, and has recently taken an aerobics program and works with Nautilus equipment. CJ hopes to take some Accounting or Business courses during the evening this fall. Welcome to the GCT family, CJ!

WATCH CAREER SERVICES BULLETIN BOARDS!

The information on new firms will be available on the bulletin boards as well as fall interview data. Career Services will videotape practice interviews during August. Come in and fine tune your job interview skills. Career Services strongly suggests reading the following books for interview preparation. They are on reserve in the Law Library.

- 1 - Sweaty Palms
- 2 - Does Your Resume Wear Bluejeans?
- 3 - How To Get A Job When There Aren't Any
