[note taped to end leaf in front of book]

One of last week's notes - Had you seen it?

Helen - It does not seem necessary to have all lights on all the time do you think? I have numbered some switches and this afternoon it was enough to have 2,3,4, on. This lights the whole South row and the "Tennessee" corner. If you want it over the desk add 5 - I did not need it this [over] afternoon - and a dark day too. After we get the stack lights in we can do with less ceiling lighting probably — PS The above applies to numbered switches only - Let the others stay as they are.

Daily Record of Law Library
1926 -1927 1st session

[handwriting of E. L. Ogden]

With possibilities of opening the Law School in ~~Ayres~~ Tennessee Hall rather than in Ayres Hall under discussion, it was not until Sept. 16 that the Library staff was officially notified that moving would not take place. In the mean time, early in September, the work of clearing out duplicates was completed, (see statement for June, 1926), and from Sept. 21 to 24 inclusive the shelves were all gone over to remove the worst of the loose dust, chairs & tables were polished, new accessions shelves and the library put in good order for opening. We found there was no chance of getting extra help for this cleaning so E. L. O., H. H. T. did it themselves. Nearly everything in the Reading room had to be shifted to make room for new volumes of Na'tl Reporters etc. and Mr. Wells came over from the other library to help with this.

Monday & Tuesday, Sept 27-28 were registration days. Miss Turner being in the library in the mornings and E. L. Ogden afternoons, greeting students, caring for accumulated periodical & pamphlet mail etc., registering new & old students and the like, but regular official opening, with full time, was postponed to Wednesday the 29th the date of official opening of the law school. Miss Baker has a "fountain pen filling station" but thinks it would be inadvisable to send it over until we move to Tennessee Hall. She says the book appropriation is ~~$5000~~ $1000.00 which is $500.00 more than was allotted last year. Hours are to be the same as last year. 8:00 to 5:30 except Saturday 8 - 12:30.

[handwriting of H. H. Turner]

On Monday Mr. Graham McIlwaine came to borrow Georgia Digest but was refused. H.H.T. introduced the new teacher, Mr. Witham to the library, and advised several freshman about things in general.

Mr. Steinmetz conducted class in legal bibliography in library, after which freshmen signed library cards. Answered many questions. Copied part of "Suggestions for book purchases." Was told by Dean that Mr. Witham would act as Secretary of the law school, having regular office hours and being generally available and on the spot when wanted. He will have locker keys etc. Mr. Fowler, new instructor, but old student reported for work.

Amer. Bar Ass'n representative inspected. Also went to see the Bar Library (or so I understood) & remarked to Mr. Witham that when we got them together we'd have the finest or one of the finest (Mr. W. wasn't sure which) law libraries in the south. Asked Mr. Baker to scrub the sink, treat for roaches and to post a no smoking card in conference room. Also phoned Miss Williams for ink and paste. Mended & began to annotate Hicks Material & Methods. Phone acted queer - When it rang I answered but got no response. happened 3 times while Mr. Witham was out. Afterwards got connection all right with Univ. Lib.
