Mr. Carter used Library most of the day – Mr. Seal brought back his book and took out two others.-Miss Baker said she had heard from Mr. Carlson and he responded – he had left book with a friend to return to Library and he would write him about it.

June 30th

C. F. H-

Mr. E. V. Jacobs came in to Library to look at a book (so he said?) Later on going in to Reading Room, the book Ballentine on “Law Problems,” that Mr. Carlson wrote Miss Baker he had left with one of the Law Students to return on June 16th was found showing that the above young man had slipped it in by concealing it under hat or coat - will speak to Miss Baker as to matter.

July 1st 1927,

C. F. H.

After telling Miss Baker about the above circumstances, she gave the following instructions, i.e.,If Mr. Jacobs should come to Library during the time I was in charge, I should tell him that he was responsible for the 14 days this book was kept over due charging a rate of 2^{cts} a day. That under the circumstances “the Library” did not think Mr. Carlson should be held accountable for the matter as he had intrusted it to him, Miss Baker having the letter (Mr. Carlson’s) to that effect. If Mr. Jacobs does not come in until next fall when U.T. opens then this matter is to be in hands of Miss Ogden.

1:30 - 5:30 E. L. Ogden Miss Baker here waiting at 1:30 to discuss shelving schedule. Wants to make a tentative one now so she can arrange her own as some time of either E. L. O. (maybe H H T also?) is to be transferred to Univ. Lib. She sketched out certain fixed points & asked E. L. O to suggest arrangement of the rest, keeping, if possible H. H. T's hours at Univ same as last year also E. L. O's hours there on Sat. - Worked on schedule without arriving at a satisfactory result. Discussed shelving also. Miss B says no carpenter work can be counted on and no new shelving this year. Finally thought best thing would be to put some ~~sets on~~ of Engl. Reports on top of stacks in alcove. E L O suggested also having bulletin board moved to hang over display case and bringing unbound ~~shelves in~~ periodicals in same sec.
4 - possibly get one more shelf made there- which would release a little space in sec. 8 for English reports. Those delivered are estimated at 12 shelves. No increase in appropriation which will not be large enough to purchase the rest of the set. So need not count on much expansion this year. Also asked about another key so each of us can have one. Miss B. asked
-? (I forget what I was going to say - Mr. Fowler came in to return books)
