TAYLOR TIMES

A PUBLICATION OF THE GEORGE C. TAYLOR LAW CENTER AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

EXTRA! EXTRA! READ ALL ABOUT IT! THE WAY WE WERE ----- ----- FALL VERSION

Last April we explained that since the entire student body of the University would be registering at the same time at Stokely, we would move law schedule pickup, drop/add, etc. to Stokely for the first two days. During registration we were crowded, hot, disorganized, and miserable, and concluded that no particular purpose was served by the move.

THE WAY WE WILL BE ----- ----- FROM NOW ON

We are back - we won't go over there anymore. Starting with Spring 1989 registration, all schedule pickup, drop/add, etc. will take place in the College of Law in the time-honored manner. Unfortunately, financial aid disbursements, fee payment, and clearing delinquencies will still take place in Stokely. But, some registration activity can be done in relative comfort.

NEW FACES BRIGHTEN UP GCT

Mary Kate Bales is a Senior Library Specialist. She has a BA in French and a Master's in Library and Information Science from UTK. Mary is a member of the American Library Association and the American Society for Information Science; and she enjoys reading, herb gardening, book collecting, and horseback riding in her spare time. Husband Doug, a nuclear engineer at the Office of Scientific and Technical Information in Oak Ridge, shares her with four cats and the Girl Scouts. Mary will be happy to answer reference questions, give library tours, show patrons how to use the law materials and resources, and will handle interlibrary loan requests.

Doris Gentry joins us as the Legal Clinic Receptionist. She comes to us from Bekins Van Lines where she was a secretary for several years after graduating from Knoxville Business College. Working at UT will keep her close to her family; her daughter-in-law, Shelly, works at the Bookstore; her daughter, Beth, attends UT College of Social Work while working at the University Center Sweet Shop; and husband Bobby even sometimes appears on campus as a K-Trans bus operator. Sewing, crafts, and the outdoors are Doris' hobbies.

Pam Park works in the Business Office as a bookkeeper and is a journalism major at UT. She was awarded a Bickel Scholarship this year for tuition. Pam was born in Knoxville; has lived in New Market, TN, Los Angeles, Honolulu, Salt Lake City, and Kalona, Iowa; and now resides on a 12-acre mini-ranch in Strawberry Plains. She likes to read, paint, garden, ride horseback, be with friends, travel, and go to art museums and the theatre. She also spends a lot of time on her porch with her dog watching sunsets or sunrises.

Notice

The Nashville law firm of Manier, Herod, Hollabaugh & Smith has established a scholarship fund at the College of Law. Annual scholarships of $1000 will be awarded to a first-year and second-year law student. Scholarship recipients will be selected by the Admissions Committee in late spring on the basis of academic performance and financial need. Contact Janet Hatcher in the Admissions Office for further information.

Class of '89 - The firm of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, New York City, has created a law fellowship program to encourage outstanding law students to work in the public sector. For further information, contact Career Services.

TAYLOR TRIVIA: Who on the GCT staff is also a Knox County Deputy Sheriff? Answer to last month's Taylor Trivia: Prof. Neil Cohen was chosen this summer to be the keynote speaker at his 25th high school reunion because as co-captain of the "ole red 'n white fightin' Orphans" of Centralia Township High School, Centralia, Illinois, he led the team to the conference title. He also served as President of the Student Body his senior year after soundly defeating Barry Miller who is now a successful Houston attorney.
