Company. <sup>9:52</sup> New members shall be added only upon a unanimous vote of all directors of the Company. All new members shall be bound by the operating agreement in effect at the time the new member's interests in the Company vests, regardless of whether the new member executed said operating agreement. A new member's agreement to be bound by the operating agreement of the Company shall be conclusively established by their acceptance of membership interests.

Article 9. The duration of the Company shall be perpetual.

Article 10. To the fullest extent permitted in the Act, the members and directors of the Company shall not be personally liable to the Company or its members for monetary damages for a breach of their fiduciary duty. If the Act is hereafter amended to authorize further elimination of limitation of the liability of members, then the liability of members of the Company, in addition to the limitation on personal liability as provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the amended Act. Any repeal or modification of this article shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on personal liability of a member of the Company existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Article 11. Except as established in the Company's operating agreement, members do not have preemptive rights with respect to the return of capital contributions or to profits, losses, or distributions.

Article 12. Pursuant to T.C.A. §48-249-309(a), the Company may establish one or more designated series of members, holders, membership interests, or financial rights with separate rights, powers, and duties, which can be different as to differing businesses or properties.

Article 13. Pursuant to by T.C.A. §48-249-309(b)(1), the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing, with respect to a particular series established shall be enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the Company generally, or any other series of the Company. None of the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to the Company generally, or any other series of the Company, shall be enforceable against the assets of such series. Separate and distinct records shall be maintained for any such series, and assets associated with any such series shall be reflected and held in separate and distinct records, directly or indirectly, including through a nominee or otherwise, and shall be accounted for in separate and distinct records separately from the other assets of the Company and the assets of any other series of the Company.

Article 14. The Company is a for profit limited liability company.

Article 15. The Company reserves the right to continue, without dissolution, under the terms as set forth in the Company's Operating Agreement, upon any act that might otherwise cause the dissolution of the Company or the dissociation of a member under the laws of the State of Tennessee. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, in the event that any director dies, is found incompetent, or is otherwise unavailable to vote at a properly noticed director meeting, then the Company may be dissolved upon the authority and at the discretion of the remaining
