UT REGAL AT REGIONALS

The College of Law's National Moot Court team, Susan Bartell, Kate Stephenson, and Lynn Taylor, won the Region VII competition of the prestigious National Moot Court Competition and has earned the right to represent the region in the national event in New York in January.

Susan Bartell was named Best Oral Advocate. They did not lose a single round during the 3-day event held in Knoxville, November 13-15. They defeated teams from Tulane, Alabama, Loyola, LSU, and Mississippi College. Professor John Sobieski serves as faculty advisor.

The entire College of Law is proud of the team's accomplishment and looks forward to their New York adventure. WOW!

International Team - Elizabeth Farr, Robert Hale, Greg Isaacs, Theresa Mahan, and Gerald Wigger.

SMOKING AREAS REQUIRED

A clarification of the campus' "smokefree environment" policy has necessitated a change in the Law College's designated smoking areas. The initial law building designations were made on an experimental basis with the understanding that they might have to be reconsidered following implementation.

Following some complaints from non-smokers about the air quality in the White Avenue lobby area, we requested further clarification of our options for satisfying the concerns of our smokers as well as our non-smokers. According to the expert at Environmental Health and Safety and the Physical Plant personnel, the White Avenue lobby is not sufficiently segregated nor can it be sufficiently ventilated to bring it into compliance under a strict interpretation of the policy.

As a matter of fact, very few lounge-type areas on campus can comply with the requirements of the policy for designated smoking areas.

Thus, the White Avenue lobby will no longer be a "designated smoking area" as of the first of January. The change will not be in effect until then, so that our student smokers will not be abruptly inconvenienced for fall term exams.

We will appreciate your continued cooperation in adhering to the smokefree policy of the Knoxville campus. Our collective health is everyone's concern.

TAYLOR TRIVIA: What member of the UT law faculty was on the fencing team in undergraduate school?

Answer to last month's Taylor Trivia: Career Services Assistant Cheryl Mays (Which GCT staff member will earn a UTK degree this quarter?)

1987 MOCK TRIAL COMPETITION

In honor of the upcoming bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution, the case for this year's mock trial competition concerns one of our most precious rights: freedom from unreasonable searches and seizures. A teenager is arrested for possession of and intent to sell drugs on a high school campus after his parked car is searched by an undercover police officer, acting on a tip from an anonymous informant.

Materials will be mailed to the schools in December and will be available to advisors the same day. All law students are invited to sign up as advisors to teams. Sign up sheets will be available in PLI, Room 14.

Formal competition rounds begin in February and run into the first week of April. We are looking forward to retaining the state championship here in Knoxville (Doyle is the defending champ), or at least maintaining our excellent reputation for fielding well-prepared teams.

FACULTY/ STAFF NEWS

TEAHNA ON TWO!

A new addition to the College of Law support staff is Teahna (pronounced Tina) Osborne, who has assumed the second-floor secretary position. Teahna worked in Career Services for a couple of months through the University Temporary Services before joining us permanently.

The original spelling of her name is a mixture of French, American Indian, and Scottish. Teahna enjoys hiking, fishing, and crafts along with taking care of three hunting dogs named Buford, Sam, and Jessie. We're glad to have you with us Teahna!

MONDAY IN NOVEMBER!

Julie Monday is the new annex secretary and feels right at home. You see, her blood runs deep ORANGE due to a UTK degree in advertising, a UTK-degreed husband, and a past 5-year work record in Andy Holt Tower. Julie designs greeting cards in her spare time and enjoys doing calligraphy. She is a distant relative of the late country music star Ernest Tubb. Julie won $1158.00 in Las Vegas this year which was to her "the most exciting thing in my life." Welcome, Julie!

NEW MALE IN MAILROOM!

Our new face in the supply/duplicating/mailroom position is Thomas Anthony Greene ... or Tony. Tony is a native

(Faculty/Staff continued)
Knoxvillian with a UTK degree in economics. He likes to spend his spare time playing bridge and cooking, and has firmly stated, "Never trust a skinny chef". He lives with his fat cat, Alien. Glad you are with us, Tony!
