Mr. Witham says Mr. Cramer yesterday said "Maryville bunch of lawyers" would be glad to pay small fee for law lib. privileges, but Mr. W. thinks they should have courtesy extended unless their visits grow too frequent, so librarians are to act accordingly & inform him if visitors from M- get too numerous, otherwise let them use library free.

This phenomenon is of very recent occurrence. Have never seen anything like it. Think shelves should be thoroughly read. Many books are being left on tables on Sundays & this condition may be caused by same person. Mr. Wilson in Conference room 12.20- Put location marks on O.T. slips.

1 - 3:30

C. F. Heiskell

See H. H. He offered to turn it all in. The junk man left him some bags & asked to be notified when there is more- I cleared off the bottom shelf under curtain, putting cleaning things on shelf above & told him he could take away what we put there- We will put discarded ~~rept~~ Advance sheets etc. there instead of waste basket in future. Mended some; began work on schedule for E. L. O. & H. H. T. ~~Jun~~ May 22 - June 20. Complicated as it takes in the irregular periods of close of exams, registration and change to summer school hours. Asked Mr. Witham if last summer's was satisfactory - He said yes- Also asked him if he thought it too cheeky to ask F. Fowler if he had a cop. of Har. L.R. v.37 no.6 he could lend us till after exams. Now that we are not letting bound periodicals circulate over night the demand for Harvard & especially this vol. is greater than ever- Mr. Witham said he would try to borrow one- If he hasn't perhaps we might try H. Broome.- More talking than there should have been but thought I'd try to get something done myself and so overlooked it-

Mr. Dunlap in Conf. room 8.25 - 10- Garrett (alumnus Kingsport) with consent of Dean used lib. Miss Tedford accessioned Mo. repts. Mr. Fitzgerald in Conf. room 10 - 11. Mr. Jo Dalstrorn tried in vain to make reserves for exam. period after promising to pay fine first; before they were due to go out. then he offered a 20.w bill & expected that would ~~ensure~~ restore his credit. (side note: Manner very violent & excited!) Told him my personal opinion of his and his brother's dilatory methods. Meantime Main had called up to make final inquiries before turning name over to Dean Massey. Students had full benefit & were much interested. Put nos. in Mich. repts. Mr. Craig in Conf. room 12.10. 8 - 1

E. L. Ogden

Saw Miss Baker Saturday about schedules, particularly with regard to shortened schedule- beginning next Thurs. eve. She did not look at it in detail but said in general: Consider evening closings & shorter hours between Thurs. ~~May~~ June 1 and Thurs. June 8 as free time compensating for overtime of HHT & E. L. O. ~~the previous week~~ May 22 - June 30 and not to be made up.- After that ~~consider~~ instead of putting in time at Main week by week to make up proper number of hours for E. L. O. & HHT keep count of time so that Main Lib. may have one or the other of us a full day sometime if work at Main piles up. Also after June 21 schedule to be determined whether E. L. O. or H. H. T. at Law according to needs of work at Main. N.B. Morrell - reg. lawyer used Lib. Fousher & then Tate in Conf. room. 8: 10 a.m-

Tuesday, May 23. 1933

8 - 1

H. H. Turner

Messrs Badgett & Lunsford in Conf. room 8-12 Finished marking Mich. repts; cut reserve slips, dusted. At 10 Messrs Lunsford, Watson & Mann joined them in Conf. room. Judge Hicks & a stenographer came at 10.30. Changed some location marks in O.T. During the latter part of morning restlessness increased, talking & making silly noises (left over from last night's celebration?) but everyone good natured when chidden! It kept one busy locating culprits, except when Mr. J. Dalstrom tossed cigarette to Mr. Jarvis! Mr. Fousher in Conf. room 12- joined by Mr. Badgett. Assisted Judge Hicks in collecting material.

1 - 5:30

E. L. Ogden

Some restlessness but might have been worse. Badgett, Aken & Co. occupied Conf. room most of P. M. So many wanted to work at lawyers' table, forbade them all as there was plenty of room in R. R.: Mr. H. Broome for Judge Hicks in Lib. Mr. McClure got electric fans started. Not much visible result from my own work but attended to a number of small matters that had been postponed, particularly some notes of Miss Bergen's as to things to be done to cards - have reduced the collection of these considerably. Wrote a note to Mr. Blackard asking him to give us his key when he goes - also to give us any "Restatements," even superseded ones, that he intends to discard. Gave it to Mr. McClure to put in his desk. Mr. McC- says he has been cleaning up Mr. B's room & he will have lots to throw away. He does not know when Mr. B expects to go- Miss Baker asked some time ago to see that his key was turned in.

7 - 9:30

H. H. Turner

~~Thursday~~ Wednesday, May 24, 1933

8 - 1

E. L. Ogden

Began going over periodical cards to see whether any missing nos. to be written for or parts to be claimed for binding- Think it well to do this now so as to get replies before colleges close and law review boards disperse- Campus mail came. Mr. McClure said Mr. Perrin told him he came yesterday "about 5" but did not reply when asked how the package came to be outside the Lib at closing time last night- He brought part of the set of Loose leaf tax service- As it is to go on top shelves stacks, will wait for the rest before shelving- This set was counted in books received in March although it was shelved at Main by mistake & not sent down until now. Very quiet this a.m. Could have begun to take inventory if I had not wanted to see to periodicals first. N. B. Morrell and J. O. Morrell, both reg. lawyers used Lib.

1 - 5:30

H. H. Turner

Started marking Mo. repts. One of the shades came down so students rolled it up & put in cor. back of desk for repairs.

7 - 9:30

E. L. Ogden

Continued making notes of periodicals to be considered for binding: Everything of importance is up to date- Find notes of "source" and other notes have been left off some of cards when recopying. Possibly this is the reason why Law Lib. Jour. nos. v.25, 1932 were not removed from "Index to legal periodicals" when nos. were superseded. Made notes on check cards of what vols. have been bound as I find this is the custom in other U. of T. branch (& Main) Libraries & it is convenient to have there- Must remember to note this in Procedure so as to ~~add~~ bring notes to date after binding. Quiet - The fan makes so much noise it drowns out the sound of talking - at least can't be heard from desk! R. W. Ogden used U. S. C. A Bankruptcy bu permission of E. L. Ogden.

Thursday, May 25. 1933

8-12

H. H. Turner

Lunsford, Badgett & Snodgrass in Conf. room 11-12

11:45 - 5:30

E. L. Ogden

(should have been 11:30) Found 13/14 U. S. C. A - pushed behind the others - looked twice & found nothing, then got a step ladder & searched. Read old texts in stack room- Missed Dean - Medico-jurisprudence & Montgomery, Federal practice 1918. Conference room occupied whole P. M. by Craig, Senter & others. Will read it tomorrow whoever wants it. Campus mail brought some more loose leaf tax vols. Cards not here yet so will wait to see whether more vols. follow, Miss Baker found she thought Law Lib. News & Law Lib. jour were the same thing because the Pres. of the Ass'n also issued the News.- Had note from Miss Williams about it & reported. Thought I remembered seeing some nos. of Index to legal periodicals with duplicates - so found them there & took out the Law Lib. Jour., completing our set. - so that's all right. Worked on cards filing and other routine not yet finished- So far behind that clearing out one thing just uncovers more arrears.

7 - 9.30

H. H. Turner

Glad lost vols. were found. The Dean, Miss Long & I scoured his office this noon in search of them. Mr. Mann in Conf. room 7:50- Marked Mo. repts. Read state repts from Miss. through U. S. Supreme Ct. repts in stacks.

E. L. Ogden

Found Dean on Medical jurisprudence in Conference room and added Abbot Proof of Facts to list of missing- Posted notices on Lib. & Dean's bulletin boards of missing volumes and notified Miss Baker. James Elmore, ~~student~~ alumnus (out of town) used library to look up an address in Martindale. Said he might be in town all summer. Told him to see Mr. Witham about further use of library Finished reading Conference room- Mr. N.B. Morrell (reg. lawyer), Leslie Bass (reg. lawyer) used Library. He wanted to borrow Restatement of Trusts no.2 (sec. 155) but declined to lend though we have two cops- He said he would try to return Perry & Page on Monday Messrs Bryant & Clark in Conf. room 10:30 - 12:00. Will return this P. M.- Left their things. Mr. Witham said rather doubtfully that he supposed J. Elmore might be allowed to use the Library - has been teaching will be here off & on this summer - may decide to practice here. Got a box of thumb tacks from Mr. Witham. Not much accomplished spent considerable time on notes to Miss Baker, evidence on Huffent etc.

Mr. Mann came in and said he could not get the Trusts till tomorrow- Phoned Miss Baker who said under the circumstances let it go as a 25¢ fine when he brings it tomorrow - but to emphasize to him his duty to have told us about it immediately -- which I did!!

In addition to routine dusting, did ledge where Amer. digest indexes are & Penna 123-146. Was afraid we might be ready to paste these before Mr. McClure got around to them. Mended. Gen. Fowler (reg. lawyer) used Lib. Mr. Blackard said he would return key before leaving. - and how about getting his 50¢ deposit back? I said "of course, if deposit is made, it is to be returned." (But Miss B. did not mention it when she spoke of the key some time ago). He said as a matter of fact Miss B. placed so many restrictions on use of key that it had been in his desk, unused all the time- He did not say when he is leaving except that the Harvard work is "for the next school year"

1:15 - 5

H. H. Turner.

Pasted bookplates in N.J. law rept.s. Finished set. Asked the Dean to define Mr. Ed. Dalstrom's present status in regard to using library as he seems to be here mainly for Social purposes, & was told that he was to be welcomed until after bar exam.s unless his talk is loud enough to annoy others. As his friends seem to enjoy him I suppose my duty has been performed.

7 -9:30

E. L. Ogden.

Sorry the recent graduates are behaving so badly. Had to speak to one of them this morning- Will have to be quite strict about any talking, I see. Mr. Whalen asked if books for a certain course, (that is each day's assignment in the course) could be left together on ~~the~~ a table. When I learned there are 22 in the class, thought the plan not practical as all 22 could not use one table & the books would be scattered - and never get back - So told him hereafter we would leave all from stacks on truck until ~~next day~~ closing at night & try to clear off tables frequently- That will prevent students having to go in stacks so often. Made slip for R.I. & began S. Dak.

Saturday, June 17, 1933

8 - 12

E. L. Ogden-

Talked to Mr. Witham about behavior of graduates- He agreed that they ought to be as quiet as others are required to be & said let him know at once, while it is going on if possible, if any of them are disturbing the quiet. Told him also that at J. R. Neal Law School Commencement Carl Reishling was given a Master of Laws degree & C. R. Morse a Doctor's degree, also an honorary Doctor of Music was given the man who sang three songs & a Doctor of Science degree to an engineer who was seen (but not heard) to talk on public hydro-electric power in Seattle. Mr. W. says that once an institution is incorporated in Tenn. and empowered to confer degrees it can give any kind it pleases- Cleaned Penna. through v. 175. Mr. Haynes gave some interesting & useful data on Tulane law library - no lending but Lib. open till 12 p.m. daily incl. Sat. & Sun.- & other items, Besides general RR. each class has a room of its own, each furnished with sets of C. J., Amer. digest & other things. I Lib'n, I ass't and several student helpers. Text books kept in glass partitioned locked room-

Wrote note to Miss Baker ~~about~~ asking what about schedules of HHT & E. L. O after June 20 (tomorrow) also another note enclosing copies of notices sent to W.P. Asbury, and charge card. Mr. McClure is to take these to Main when he goes to lunch. He wants to talk to Miss Baker & to Mr. Wells about getting the vacuum cleaner to use on the books. which Mr. Kirkman told him he was to clean. I said I thought he'd best begin by cleaning tops of stacks and get cardboard strips cleaned so as to have a supply ahead. Then to begin with ~~those~~ books to be catalog'd next (i.e. S.D etc-). Suggested he ask for rags anyway as he will need them for the shelves even if he gets vacuum cleaner for books. Gave emphatic notice to several studying for bar that they are expected to be quiet. No talking & laughing, no visiting; if they want to study for bar, stay & study at separate tables. If they want to visit, go to students room. In view of disturbance caused by them last week, Lib. staff would stop their talking "before it began". Those who were directly addressed: W. Wilson, Headman, V. Akan, R. Johnson, J. Overton. They remained quite meek the rest of the morning- Later Miss Baker phoned ~~that~~ (see report Tuesday 1-5:30).

1:15 - 5

H. H. Turner

Pasted book plates in Oregon repts. Warren Kennerly, representing W.T. Kennerly (reg. lawyer) used library. Quite a number fairly quiet users all p.m., but a tendency to wander about & chat. Tuesday, June 20, 1933

8 - 12:15

H. H. Turner

Campus mail. Mr. McClure started cleaning top shelves N.E. stacks with vacuum cleaner. Continued pasting book plates in Penna. repts. Message from Main library that when I had no pasting to do I was to go there to get C.L. cards for me to file down here. They can't tell when more G.p.s will be forthcoming- Read a very interesting article in current Harv. law rev. XLVI, 8 on "Casus & frustration in Roman & Common law". Buckley. Warren Kennerly returned, & Gen. Fowler (reg. lawyer) used library. Mr. Strand, ass't supt. of grounds, came to see about cutting down trees, as Miss Ogden has ~~requested~~ enquired about it. Said he was perfectly willing if we wanted them cut down but he did not advise. Students all objected vigorously. Quite a stir. Referred him to Miss Baker who said emphatically NO. He didn't wish to go ahead until he had been told to do so & I didn't feel justified ~~to~~ in taking any such steps & Mr. Witham also refused to do so. Mr. Blackard in Conf. room
10:15-10:45- Mr. Witham later told a man to cut down one or two rotten trees- Students very quiet.

1:15 - 5

E. L. Ogden-

In yesterday's phone call, Miss Baker said the vacuum cleaner was to be lent Law Library for I week to start and we were not to expect steady work from Mr. McClure. I said I had told him that we realized he could do it only in intervals of other work. & would do a little at a time when he found it convenient; but if he could set a definite time each day it would be easier for us all because then we will arrange our own work so as to have the truck clear & ready for him when he needed it with the books, the truck being in use pretty constantly in the work now going on in the Library. She also said nothing could be done now about the Asbury- affair, as accounts all went in June 1.- 1 was sorry I had not finished up the matter before, but was waiting, hoping to get a reply from Mr. A. Asked if Huffcut could be made presentable. I said, I thought so. - had tried only a little in inconspicuous spots but mud there washed off easily. ~~As to sched~~ - I inferred she thought it all right to go ahead & clean it up. She asked if I thought the evidence conclusive. I said not entirely - but if we had been accurate in dating and if I read blurred dates right, saw no other way, She is sending back the charge card which we ought to keep with copies of notes to Mr. Asbury. She says it may be possible to collect from him when he comes back in Fall. I assured her that as the book lay closed, I noticed nothing out of the way - only flicked over the pages as a matter of habit & was surprised myself at what was revealed- It could have been taken from shelves & returned without opening without reason to suspect anything wrong. As to trees, I had not meant to urge their removal, merely to ask Mr. Witham what he thought- They affect the classrooms as much as the Library - cutting out some light & air, though not seriously - thought use of electric lights & fan might be slightly reduced if they are gone - distant trees shade the windows some - but, as I said, did not request, but inquire The Asbury incident makes me inclined to repeat a recent suggestion of mine to watch the stamp, see that it is well inked before using - we never know when something important may hinge on it. I see that when we display things on cat. case while fan operates, we shall have to lay them flat & weight them down. Finished notes on Tex. reports for Miss Bergen- Goodbye till July 1 (unless something turns up that needs me sooner- "signing off" at 5:40. Good luck & welcome C. F. H.-

7 - 9:30

H. H. Turner

Pasted book plates in New Mexico repts. leaving Penna. at v. I Watts & Sergeant's repts. In regard to tree episode didn't have time to make all points clear. This Mr. Strand said that someone from law library wanted trees near building cut down as they kept out light and air but that they had been kept for the sole purpose of shade - however he would do what we wished and that Mr. Witham had declined to express an opinion. He suggested calling up Miss Baker after I had declined to express an opinion, saying I didn't feel in a position to do so. He had quite a talk with her & told me that she said no decidedly. In the meantime the students were much excited for fear the trees were to be cut down at once! and the morning sun roast them out. As all I knew of the subject was what was recorded on page of June 12, I couldn't be very specific. So that's all.

Wednesday- June 21, 1933-

Told him any more of it and I'd report him to the Dean. That seemed to settle him- also the others who had laughed with him, room quiet until closing time. Library up to 91, no breeze, hence heat made room restless. Gave card that came about fraudulent Trust (cases cited) to Mr. Wicker as he has that subject so Mr. Witham says.

Another crowd of prospective Bar (State) examination candidates among whom was Mr. Ed. Dalston whose manner was quite changed from that of yesterday - most quiet and subdued- More nos. in N.J. Miss Hayes' brother came and began using Library I inquired where he was studying - said he was of John R. Neal's Law College (?) and was fixing to take bar Exam.- Informed him the Dean, Mr. Witham, was thru courtesy allowing our students to use Library until after Bar Exams and he'd have to get same privilege from Dean.-He left-

Glad the Dalston's got attended to by Dean, will draw a long sigh of relief when the Library is no longer tormented by such- See books left on two tables so guess they are also for use by students in class. A good crowd altho hot-

C. F. Heiskel-

Miss Walsh phoned for Miss Baker to say that Miss B- wanted the report for June monies, etc from Law library by closing time today- Said for C. F. H. to leave it ready to send to her by H. H. T.- as she left at 5 p.m.- Very insistent that it should reach her before July 1st- Guess the regular Trustee meeting is set for tomorrow and all reports must be in. Mr. McClure brought up salary cheques- Mailed E. L. O. to her- Misses Long and Turner both - leaving on vacations- Trust theirs will do them the good mine did. H. H. T.- -You'll be missed by us two at Library- Goodbye and all good wishes- Just the summer school students using Library hence nice and quiet- Put nos. in N.J. Law- Helped students.

Phoned Miss Baker about cash as Miss Turner was wanted at Main this P. M.- Miss B. said she would get it herself this afternoon or tomorrow morning - said she supposed no one was going that way- I said no - not unless she wanted Mr. McClure to bring it & she said not. Talked with Miss Williams about Pub. Util. Fortnightly which Mr. Witham agreed need not be continued. It seems the subscription bill for came Apr. 1, 1933 for $32.50 which Main has been paying right along although according to the advts that is the price of the bound Pub. Util. reports vol. A-E & annual digest; their advt. gives $42.50 for these & fortnightly. Miss Williams made some notes for next year to drop the Fortnightly if bill is increased - & added no telling who would attend to them as "none of us know what will happen" by then. Also told Miss Bergen that if they get hard pushed for the alphabeting HHT has been helping with, perhaps C. F. H. & I could help in an emergency if needed - the main difficulty, of course, being prompt & safe transportation. Worked on circulation statistics & got new Record book ready to begin July 1.
