THE "LET'S GO FOR IT" SECTION FOR LAW STUDENTS

1) Americans United for Separation of Church and State invite law students who are interested in church-state issues to apply for a scholarship to the sixth annual Madison/Jefferson Student Seminar on Church and State, September 22-26, in Alexandria, Virginia. Only one law student from each law school will be selected to receive the scholarship for the airline ticket, hotel room, and some meals. Send in the application as soon as possible.

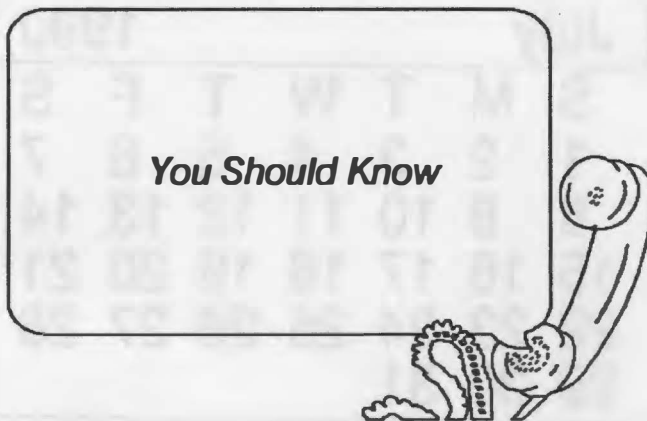

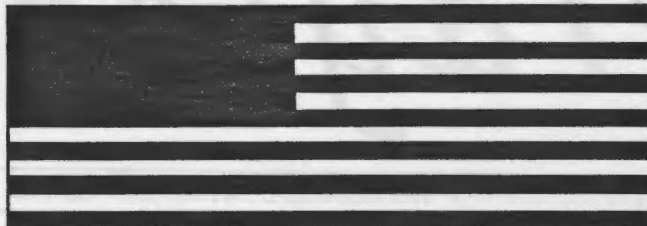

2) The Center for Computer/Law and The John Marshall Law School announce the 1990-91 Eighth Annual Computer Law Writing Competition on "Globalization of the Computer Industry: Coping with the Legal Issues." The winning paper will be published, will receive a cash prize, and will allow its author to attend the World Computer Law Conference in May 1991 in Chicago, Illinois. Deadline: February 28, 1991.

3) The Section of Business Law of the American Bar Association is sponsoring an annual contest to encourage and reward law student writings on a business law subject of general and current interest. The winning paper will receive a cash prize. Deadline: October 2, 1990.

4) The American Bar Association Forum on the Construction Industry announces a writing competition in order to stimulate student interest in construction law. A cash prize will go to the top two papers. The first prize winner will have his/her paper published in The Construction Lawyer, and will also receive a trip to the Forum's annual meeting in Chicago in April 1991. Deadline: December 28, 1990.

For further information, see the Contest Bulletin Board or Mary Jo Hoover.

TAYLOR TRIVIA: What staff member's mother holds the title of baroness in Austria? Answer to last month's Taylor Trivia: The McReynolds Club was organized by law students in 1915 and became the James Clark McReynolds Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta fraternity in 1916.

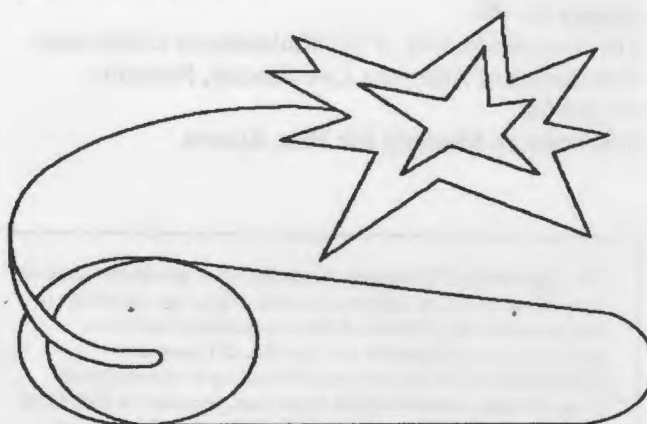

Our GCT "chip-off-the-ole-block" ...

... has Professor Cohen's son, Jonathan, attending the Governor's School in International Relations at Memphis State University. Jonathan will also serve as President of the Student Body at Webb School this next school year.

Our GCT "get well soon" and best wishes ...

... go to De Burns, Law Library Secretary, as she recovers at home from surgery.

Have a safe & happy 4th of July!
