SUMMER TIME

AND THE COLLEGE OF LAW SHINES!

Our Spring 1986 Hooding Ceremony was a big success! Mother Nature splashed everyone with a beautiful evening. One hundred forty-nine students received JD degrees as proud parents, spouses, and friends looked on. As some of our "GCT" family leaves us, others arrive. Soon new faculty, staff, and students will fill some empty halls and offices.

FROM TENNESSEE TO TEXAS!

As you all know, Dean Kenneth L. Penegar, who has been UT College of Law's dean since 1971, will resign his post in August to become dean of the College of Law at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. An acting dean will be appointed to serve until a permanent dean is selected. Provost George Wheeler cited several of Dean Penegar's contributions to the school, including the growth of the student body and the enhanced visibility of our academic program. Penegar said he is looking forward to new challenges at SMU where they have a graduate program in international law. The faculty, staff, and students will miss Dean Penegar, and we all wish him well.

WELCOME MARY ANN BLEDSOE AND LISA MARKLE!

The College of Law's new Administrative Services Assistant in the Dean's office is Mary Ann Bledsoe. She comes to us from the mathematics department where she was a senior secretary. Lisa will be the new Principal Secretary in the Legal Clinic and comes to us from the Ombudsmen's office. Both will begin duties here June 9. Let's make them feel at home!

DAVID FREEMAN SPEAKS AT HOODING

Former Chairman of the Board of TVA and attorney, David Freeman, spoke at the College of Law's Hooding Ceremony Friday, May 23. The valedictory address was delivered by John Stephen Collins of Memphis. Approximately 150 spring semester graduates received J.D. degrees and UT hoods. A reception for graduates and their guests in the Exhibition Center followed the ceremony.

NORA CANNON SELECTED AS THE 1986 UT COLLEGE OF LAW'S OUTSTANDING GRADUATE

Nora T. Cannon of Memphis was selected as the Outstanding Graduate of 1986 at The University of Tennessee College of Law. The selection was announced at the Law College's Hooding Ceremony, Friday, May 23. Ms. Cannon graduated from The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, March 1979, magna cum laude. At the College of Law, she distinguished herself academically by receiving an academic scholarship during her second year, being on the Dean's List every semester, and serving as the editor of the Tennessee Law Review in her third year. She also coordinated the Nuclear Waste Colloquium. After graduation, Ms. Cannon will clerk for Judge Thomas Wiseman Jr., U.S. District Court, Nashville.

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Several offices in the College of Law have received new furniture. The furniture is part of the total "face lift" GCT is currently undergoing. These offices now offer comfortable waiting areas for visitors and guests as well as for the GCT family. More furniture is due for other offices in the future.
