1987 LAWYERS OF THE FUTURE

Pictures for the 1987 Lawyers of the Future will be taken on Wednesday, March 11, from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. in Career Services. This is for first- and second-year students. Lawyers is a very useful publication for many employers. For further information contact Joann Gillespie in Career Services.

TAYLOR TRIVIA: Who has been cast as a "Miss Malaprop-like" character and has all the screamingly funny scenes in the Knoxville Dinner Theater's next production, "The Drunkard," beginning March 19? Last month's TAYLOR TRIVIA: TJN editor, Eric Morrison, has a subscription to the Dolphin Digest and is proud of it.

TENNESSEE WINS REGIONAL TRIAL COMPETITION

Eleven law schools from Arkansas, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee competed in Little Rock, Feb. 13-15, for the regional National Trial Competition championship. The competition, which is sponsored by the American Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division and Litigation Section as well as by the American College of Trial Lawyers and the Texas Young Lawyers, is designed to test the trial advocacy skills of the participants. The teams were prepared to represent either the prosecution or the defense in a bank robbery case. The College of Law's team of Tom Bickers, Daniel Clayton, and Scott Davis defeated teams from Memphis State University, the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, and two different teams from Wake Forest University to win the regional event. The team's faculty advisors are Professor Gary Anderson and Professor Larry Dessem.

The second team from UT, Tricia Mogan, Julie Taylor, and Steve Rothenburg defeated a team from the University of Mississippi before losing to the team from South Carolina, which proceeded to become co-champion of the region.

Tennessee and South Carolina, along with the top two teams from each of the other ten regions, will compete for the national title March 18-21 in San Antonio, Texas. Good work, and good luck!

SUPPORT BLSA!

BLSA will hold a drawing for a VCR during Law Week. Tickets can be purchased now from BLSA members for a $1.00 donation. BLSA is raising money to support their many activities. Let's get behind them!

COPY CARDS ARE READY!

The copy cards for use in the law library copying machines are available now at the law library circulation desk. Pick yours up during regular law library hours and begin the convenience of "credit" copying! What will they think of next?

FACULTY/STAFF NEWS

MAY WE INTRODUCE ...

Anita Slagle started her duties as senior word processing specialist last month. Anita comes to us from Broadus, Anderson & Associates Insurance where she was a bond processor. She previously worked for the University of Tennessee in the Development Office. Anita is a Knoxville native who graduated from Carter High School, and plays shortstop for Unique Cleaner's softball team. Sandy Salvage, the receptionist/secretary in PLI, is also a Knoxville native who graduated from Karns High School. Sandy keeps busy after work raising her three-year-old daughter, Margie, remodeling her house, and supporting the Lady Vols. Please make them feel welcome!

Anne Galbraith, legal clinic senior word processing specialist, was presented an "Award of Merit" by The University of Tennessee for 5 continuous years of employment and outstanding service. The award was presented by Acting Clinic Director Susan Kovac, March 5, 1987. Congratulations, Anne!

Dick Wirtz's wife, Peggy, will be a speaker at the "Families in Transition" seminar, March 7, at the West Hills Baptist Church. For further information call Reba Best at 974-6728.
