OUR CONGRATULATIONS ...

... go to Dean Wells and his wife, Sigrid, on the birth of their daughter, Brittany Amanda, who was born on March 13 at 5:35 p.m., weighed 8 lb., 9.5 oz., and was 20.5 inches long. "Good news," says Dean Wells, "she looks like her mom."

OUR CONDOLENCES ...

... go to Professor Kirby due to the death of his aunt last month.

TAYLOR TRIVIA: Who will be the 1988-89 Editor in Chief of the Tennessee Judicial Newsletter? Answer to last month's TAYLOR TRIVIA: Jeff Rosenblum attended the XV Winter Olympic Games in Canada and saw Brian Boitano win the gold in Men's Figure Skating, the Jamaican bobsled team bump-n-slide down Olympic Park Run, and Eddie "The Eagle" Edwards fly down the ski jump hill. Jeff introduced himself to the gold medalist in the Women's Super Giant Slalom, Sigried Wolf of Austria, and rumor has it of a July wedding.

Notice

The Smoke-free Policy of the College of Law now includes the 4th floor of the law building. With the weather becoming warmer, smokers will enjoy going outside to smoke.

The Law Library policy of NO EATING OR DRINKING IN THE LIBRARY is an important rule that needs to be adhered to in order to insure quality study areas and usable materials. Each person who uses the law library is responsible for keeping its high standards.

LAW WEEK HIGHLIGHTS

TUESDAY - APRIL 5

2:00 P.M. - 4:00 P.M. - Ray Jenkins Trial Competition, Moot Court Room of GCT. Established in 1985, this intraschool trial competition is made possible by the generosity of the Knoxville law firm of Jenkins and Jenkins. It is named in honor of Ray H. Jenkins (1897-1980), a widely respected and admired advocate. The competition is open to all second- and third-year law students.

NEW FACULTY _____*FRAN ANSLEY

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF LAW -

Professor Ansley graduated from the UT College of Law in 1979. She ranked first in her class, was named Outstanding Graduate, garnered numerous awards for her academic achievements, and served as a member of the Tennessee Law Review. She has her undergraduate degree from Radcliffe College. Ms. Ansley practiced for eight years in Knoxville, concentrating in representing plaintiffs in personal injury litigation. She will receive an L.L.M. from Harvard Law School in May. Professor Ansley will teach Gratuitous Transfers (the new course that combines the coverage of Decedents' Estate and Future Interests) this Fall, and in the Spring, she will teach Property (the new 4-hour first-year course) and a course yet to be determined.

HOWARD BRILL

VISITING PROFESSOR OF LAW (FALL, 1988) - Professor Brill is a Professor of Law at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. He holds a J.D. degree from the University of Florida, where he was Editor in Chief of the Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif. His undergraduate degree is from Duke, and he also holds an L.L.M. from the University of Illinois. Professor Brill has been teaching for 14 years, concentrating his work in the areas of civil procedure, professional responsibility, and remedies. He comes to us with a reputation as an outstanding classroom teacher, and he has often received the outstanding professor award at Arkansas. He will teach Civil Procedure I and Family Law in the Fall.

JOHN A. WALKER

ADJUNCT ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF LAW - Mr. Walker, who is one of the leading commercial law practitioners in Knoxville and in Tennessee, will teach Bills and Notes in the Fall. He holds an undergraduate degree from Duke and his J.D. from Columbia University, where he was Editor in Chief of the Columbia Journal of Transnational Law. Professor Walker regularly contributes articles to Law Reviews on commercial and bankruptcy laws, and has written chapters of a book on damages in commercial law cases.
