

University of Tennessee Law

Legal Scholarship Repository: A Service of the Joel A. Katz Library

Taylor Times (1986 - 1994)

Historic Collections

5-1989

Taylor Times (May 1989)

University of Tennessee College of Law

Follow this and additional works at: https://ir.law.utk.edu/utk_lawtaylortimes

5-1989

Taylor Times (May 1989)

University of Tennessee College of Law

Follow this and additional works at: http://trace.tennessee.edu/utk_lawtaylortimes

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

University of Tennessee College of Law, "Taylor Times (May 1989)" (1989). Taylor Times (1986 - 1994).
http://trace.tennessee.edu/utk_lawtaylortimes/26

This Publication is brought to you for free and open access by the College of Law Communications and Publications at Trace: Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Taylor Times (1986 - 1994) by an authorized administrator of Trace: Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact trace@utk.edu.

TAYLOR TIMES

A PUBLICATION OF THE GEORGE C. TAYLOR LAW CENTER AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

MAY, 1989

May 1-11

Examination Period

May 11

Hooping Ceremony - Tennessee Amphitheater
World's Fair site - 7:30 p.m. - Speaker: L. Stanley
Chauvin, President-Elect of the American Bar Association - Reception in the Grand Ballroom,
Holiday Inn, following the ceremony.

May 12

Commencement

Dean's Circle Meeting - Noon - Room 302
Contracting with the Government: Fundamentals and New Developments - Student fee $30. For further information, call the Division of Continuing Education at 974-0250.

May 17-21

College of Trial Advocacy

May 23

Summer Term Registration

May 24

Summer Term Classes Begin

TAYLOR TRIVIA: When the College of Law opened
it's doors to students Thursday, September 10, 1891, what was the tuition? Answer to last month's Taylor Trivia: George Caldwell Taylor (1885-1952), Class of 1908, was a federal judge and a member of the UT Board of Trustees from 1944-1952. The law building was named in his honor for his distinguished judicial career and dedicated service to the University.

Law Students Selected for Knoxville American Inn of Court

Twelve second-year law students have been selected for membership in the Knoxville
American Inn of Court for the 1989-90
academic year. They are: Mark Braswell,
Robert Bradshaw, Tamara Davis, John Floyd,
Laura Hendricks, James Holt, Lorraine
Lester-Thompson, Thomas Leveille, Laura Recher, Robbin Sarrazin, Laura Shaw, and John Zwald.

The Knoxville American Inn of Court
meets monthly. The meetings will feature local attorneys, judges, and law students demonstrating various litigation skills.

The College of Law Provides After Hours Message Service

Due to the large number of telephone calls that the College receives after 5:00 p.m., an answering service has been established to operate between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. If an emergency arises, now a message can be left by dialing either 974-4241 or 974-2521. The Dean's Office will forward all messages received after 5:00 p.m. to the appropriate person or office the next working day.

FACULTY ACTIVITIES

Tom Eisele ...

... was featured in Tennessee Education, the alumni magazine of UT's College of Education, Winter 1989.

Grayfred Gray ...

... presented a Teens Against Crime program to 28 students and teachers at Austin-East High School Saturday, April 22. He was assisted by Rule High School students and Rule assistant principal Doug Stokes.

John Sebert ...

... is serving on the UT Federal Credit Union's Board of Directors.

Marllyn Yarbrough ...

... taught a University Honors Course titled "Life after Baccalaureate," April 13.

... gave a Tennessee Scholars Presentation, April 19.

... was inducted into Omicron Delta Kappa Honors Society.

... served as a moderator for the Tennessee Fair Housing Conference, April 20.

... delivered the Law Day speech at the Madison County Bar Association luncheon, May 1, in Jackson.

News

OUR CONGRATULATIONS ...

... go to Dr. Sandra A. Eisele, wife of Professor Tom Eisele, on being inducted as a fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

... go to Tony Greene, data coordinator, for receiving a Chancellor's Citation for Extraordinary Community Service. Tony is heavily involved in a support network for people with AIDS.

... go to law students Dorothy A. Ingram, Robert W. Horton, John M. Gauldin, and Paul E. Kaufman. Dorothy, a third-year law student, was recognized at the Chancellor's Honors Banquet for extraordinary campus leadership and service. She has been active in BLSA, has participated in career day at Vine Middle School, has served as assistant director of the Council on Legal Education Opportunity, and is currently program coordinator for the Minority Student Affairs Mentorship program. Robert, a first-year law student, John, a second-year law student, and Paul, a third-year law student, were recognized at the Banquet for outstanding scholarship and professional promise.

... go to the Fee Tails for being UT's 1989 Women's Intermural All Sport Point Champs.

... go to law students Bradley H. Hodge, David L. Kleinfelter, and George J. Phillips for being admitted to the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi as graduate students.

OUR BEST WISHES ...

... go to Eugenia Brown, Admissions Office, and to third-year law student, Melvin Malone, on their recent engagement.

... go to Professor Jim Kirby on his upcoming retirement from 10 years of teaching at the College of Law. Professor Kirby and his wife Barbara plan to move to Nashville where he will write and do some consulting work.

OUR CONDOLENCES ...

... go to Professor Dean Rivkin on the death of his father-in-law.

... go to Professor Jim Kirby on the death of his brother-in-law.

OUR WELCOME MAT ...

... goes out to LaVaun Kelly. LaVaun is the information secretary in the Dean's Office.

Law Week Awards

The University of Tennessee College of Law recognized students and faculty for outstanding achievements during Law Week. A special citation for outstanding contributions to the College was presented to Marsha D. Patterson for her leadership as chairperson of the Moot Court Board.

Students receiving academic awards included Larry E. Davidson, Jr., Paul E. Kaufman, Kathryn A. Stephenson, a June 1988 graduate who is now associated with the Nashville firm of Farris, Warfield and Kanaday, and Elizabeth Enoch, a June 1988 graduate who is now associated with the firm of Stokes and Bartholomew of Nashville. Mr. Davidson also received a special award from the Knoxville Auxiliary to the Tennessee Bar Association for academic achievement during the first year of studies, and Mr. Kaufman also received the Herbert L. Davis Trust Fund Award for earning the highest scholastic average during the first two years of study. Gerald C. Wigger, a December 1988 graduate, received the United States Law Week Award, which is given to the student who made the most academic progress during the third year of studies. Mr. Wigger is now associated with the Nashville firm of Ortake, Kelley, Herbert and Crawford.

American Jurisprudence awards were presented for the highest grade in selected courses. Winners are: Charles C. Allen for Business Associations; Mary F. Barkley for Civil Procedure; Thomas D. Beesley, a December 1988 graduate, for Evidence; Vida I. Bell for Property; Cynthia A. Bibb, a June 1988 graduate, for Legal Process I; Mark K. Braswell for Appellate Advocacy; Keith H. Burroughs for Contracts; Pamela J. Byrd for

Criminal Law; Michael B. Chance for Sales and Secured Transactions; Susan L. Christenberry for Contracts; William D. Coffey for Land Finance; Tony R. Dalton for Civil Procedure, Torts, and Legal Process I; Larry E. Davidson, Jr. for Torts; Marshall E. Davidson III for Trial Practice; Tamara L. Davis for Appellate Advocacy; Edward E. DeWerff for Constitutional Law; Stephen S. Duggins, a June 1988 graduate now serving a judicial clerkship with the Honorable L. Clure Morton, United States District Court, for Trial Practice and Social Legislation; Elizabeth T. Einstman for American Legal History and Evidence; Edda E. Erroll for Trial Practice; Elizabeth A. Farr, a June 1988 graduate now associated with Womble, Carlyle, Sandridge and Rice of Winston-Salem, NC, for Constitutional Law; Ronald D. Garland for Interviewing, Counseling and Negotiations; John M. Gauldin for Legal Profession, Contracts, and Appellate Advocacy; Kelley A. Gillikin for Contracts and Civil Procedure; Gerald L. Gulley, Jr. for Law Review; Kenneth D. Hale for Trial Practice; Peter D. Heil for Torts; Bradley H. Hodge for Gratuitous Transfers; James D. Holt for Legal Profession; Robert W. Horton for Criminal Law; Timothy C. Houser, a December 1988 graduate, for Future Interests; Dee Anne Irwin for Appellate Advocacy; Robert L. Ivey, a June 1988 graduate now associated with the Houston, Texas firm of Vinson and Elkins, for Criminal Procedure; John R. Jacobson for Torts; Paul G. Jennings for Constitutional Law; Lawrence R. Johnson for Decedents' Estates; Susan D. Jones for Property; Paul E. Kaufman for Remedies, Products Liability, Insurance, Federal Courts, and Evidence; Frederick M. Lance, a

LAW WEEK AWARDS continued

December 1988 graduate, for Business Associations and Securities Regulation; Frederic Le Clercq for Administrative Law; Thomas M. Levielle for Civil Procedure; Joseph B. Lyle for Appellate Advocacy; Jack H. McCall, Jr. for Legal Process I; William S. McDaniel for Property; F. Scott Milligan for Tax and Debtor-Creditor Law; Joseph P. Murphy, a June 1988 graduate now associated with Bass, Berry and Sims of Nashville, for Education Law; Carrie A. Nourse for Appellate Advocacy; David W. Olive for Trial Practice; Patricia M. Owen for Civil Procedure; Marsha D. Patterson for Trial Practice; Angela C. Prater for Criminal Procedure; Robert A. Pritchard for Contracts; Laura A. Recher for Appellate Advocacy; Nelwyn I. Rhodes for Health Law; Virginia A. Schwamm for Constitutional Law; Deana C. Seymour for Property and Evidence; Tracy J. Smith for Civil Procedure; Don C. Stansberry III, a December 1988 graduate now associated with the Huntsville office of Baker, Worthington, Crossley, Stansberry and Woolf, for Trial Practice; Kathryn A. Stephenson, a June 1988 graduate now associated with Farris, Warfield and Kanaday of Nashville, for Remedies, Trial Practice, and Sales and Secured Transactions; Norman G. Templeton for Torts; Robert D. Thomas, a June 1988 graduate now associated with the Jackson firm of Rainey, Kizer, Butler, Reviere and Bell, for Law, Language and Ethics and Trial Practice; John Tishler, a June 1988 graduate now serving a judicial clerkship with the United States District Court in Memphis, for Advanced Business Associations; Daniel C. Todd, a June 1988 graduate now associated with Manier, Herod, Hollabaugh and Smith,

P.C. of Nashville, for Decedents' Estates; Sharon A. Tranchant for Legal Process I; Andrew M. Walsh, a June 1988 graduate now serving a judicial clerkship for the Honorable Hershel Franks, Tennessee Court of Appeals, Chattanooga, for Trial Practice; Darrell E. Warner for Appellate Advocacy; David S. Wigler for Bills and Notes; and Sondra F. Wooten for Torts.

Two new awards, made possible by the generosity of two law firms, were given this year. Andrew R. Tillman received the Hunton and Williams Law Review Prize for writing excellence, and Tamara L. Davis received the Vinson and Elkins Law Review Prize for an outstanding law review casenote.

Charlie Allen, Jr., a December 1988 graduate now associated with the LaFollette firm of Dunaway and Dunaway, received the Charles H. Miller Clinical Achievement Award. David L. Bacon, a June 1988 graduate, was the second recipient of the James L. Powers III Excellence in Criminal Advocacy Award. Frederic Le Clercq received the McClung Medal for excellence in Moot Court and Procedure. James W. Elrod, a June 1988 graduate, received the Arnett, Draper and Hagood Book Prize for superior achievement in antitrust law. Tracy R. Carter received the National Association of Women Lawyers Award for academic achievement.

Fred C. Statum and John H. Zwald placed first in the Advocates' Prize appellate moot court competition. David L. Kleinfelter and Melvin J. Malone placed second. Mr. Kleinfelter was named best oralist. The best brief award went to the team of Mr. Statum and Mr. Zwald. The Ray H. Jenkins Trial Competition was won by Edward E. DeWerff and Carl M. Warren. Mr. DeWerff was named best oral advocate of the competition.

LAW WEEK AWARDS continued

Three faculty members were recognized for their superior achievements. Professor R. Lawrence Dessem received the Harold C. Warner Outstanding Teacher Award for his excellence in classroom teaching. Professor Dessem also received a plaque for being selected by law students as the Student Bar Association's Outstanding Faculty. The Carden Award for outstanding service to the institution went to Professor Joseph H. King, Jr. for his work with the tutorial program, the mentoring program for junior faculty, and the Governance Committee. Professor Jerry J. Phillips was recognized with a Carden Award for his superior achievement in scholarship since 1967 with many published articles and books.

THE "LET'S GO FOR IT" SECTION FOR LAW STUDENTS

(1) The Business and Professional Women's Foundation offers two scholarships. Career Advancement Scholarships are awarded to older or mid-life women who are in nontraditional careers or leadership positions, women who are in a transitional period in their lives, and minority women. The Clairol Scholarships provide financial assistance to women 30 years of age and older. To request an application, send a self-addressed, business-size envelope with 50 cents postage to: Loan Programs, BPW Foundation, 2012 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20036.

(2) The Dirksen Congressional Center provides research grants to study the leadership in Congress. For more information, contact Dr. John J. Kornack, Executive Director, Broadway and Fourth, Pekin, IL 61554, or call (309)347-7113.

(3) The Grants Program of the United States Institute of Peace promotes scholarship, education, training, and the dissemination of information on international peace and conflict management by providing financial support. For more information, contact the US Institute of Peace, Unsolicited Grants Project, Suite 700, 1550 M Street NW, Washington, DC 20005, or call (202) 457-1700.

(4) The American Judges Association announces its 30th Anniversary essay competition. Essays submitted for consideration should address any topic of interest to the judiciary. The winning essay will be published in the AJA'S journal, Court Review, and its author will receive $200. Deadline: June 30, 1989. See bulletin board outside the Records Office for additional information.

(5) The Planning and Law Division of the American Planning Association announces its eighth annual R. Marlin Smith Writing Competition. The paper should be on any current issue in planning or law of importance to planning law, land use and/or environmental law of regional or national interest. Deadline: June 30, 1989. See bulletin board outside the Records Office for additional information.

$

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, handicap, or veteran status in provision of educational opportunities or employment opportunities and benefits. UT does not discriminate on the basis of sex or handicap in the education programs and activities which it operates, pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Public Law 92-318, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Public Law 93-112, respectively. This policy extends to both employment by and admission to the University. Inquiries concerning Title IX and Section 504 should be directed to the Director of Affirmative Action, 403B Andy Holt Tower, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN 37996-0144/telephone 615/974-2498. Charges of violation of the above policy should also be directed to the office of the Director of Affirmative Action.