

University of Tennessee Law

Legal Scholarship Repository: A Service of the Joel A. Katz Library

Taylor Times (1986 - 1994)

Historic Collections

10-1986

Taylor Times (October 1986)

University of Tennessee College of Law

Follow this and additional works at: https://ir.law.utk.edu/utk_lawtaylortimes

10-2-1986

Taylor Times (October 1986)

University of Tennessee College of Law

Follow this and additional works at: http://trace.tennessee.edu/utk_lawtaylortimes

 Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

University of Tennessee College of Law, "Taylor Times (October 1986)" (1986). Taylor Times (1986 - 1994).
http://trace.tennessee.edu/utk_lawtaylortimes/14

This Publication is brought to you for free and open access by the College of Law Communications and Publications at Trace: Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Taylor Times (1986 - 1994) by an authorized administrator of Trace: Tennessee Research and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact trace@utk.edu.

TAYLOR TIMES

Activities at George E. Taylor Law Center

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE IS A UNIVERSITY "ON THE MOVE"!

UTK was selected as one of the twenty colleges/universities "on the move" in the book, Searching for Academic Excellence, by J. Wade Gilley, Kenneth A. Fulmer, and Sally J. Rethlingshoefer. One of UTK's strengths is that it is "the only public institution in the state to encompass a full range of professional schools." The article highlighted the East Tennessee area, the area's support of UTK, UTK's accomplishments, and its bright future. A copy of the article is in PLI so please drop by and read it. We all are a part of UTK's success.

THE COLLEGE OF LAW IS A STAR!
The College of Law was the "star" of the television program, "This Is Tennessee" Sunday, September 28, on Channel 2. The eight-minute program spotlighted the Legal Clinic and the "Alternatives to Prison" project. This is a regular series featuring UT programs and activities, and may be a worthy basis for switching on the TV set on a sleepy Sunday afternoon.

PUBLIC LAW INSTITUTE

THE COLLEGE OF PRACTICAL LAW:
A Law School Course for High School Students.

The College of Practical Law, coordinated by Professor Grayfred Gray, offers area high school students a free family law course taught by law students. The course will meet at GCT on Tuesdays, October 7 through November 11, from 5 to 8 p.m. Law students in Professor Gray's "Teaching Clients the Law" class will teach Tennessee family and juvenile court law, matters which are close to the lives of most high school students. The first course, which was offered in cooperation with the Knoxville Bar Association, as is this year's, was a success. We hope this will become a regular public service activity of GCT.

CALENDAR

OCTOBER 1986

- October 2
Christian Legal Society -
5:00 p.m. See bulletin board
Meets every other Thursday
- October 7
CLS Prayer Breakfast at
Smokey's at 8:00 a.m.
Meets every other Tuesday
- October 8
Meeting for 3Ls - Moot Court
Room - 11:00-11:15 a.m.
- October 8-10
Consortium in Atlanta
- October 13
Deadline for TJN Editorial
Board applications
- October 27-31
Sign-up for clinic, trial
practice, and seminars -
For Spring Semester 1987 -
Student Records Office
- October 29
Bicentennial Debate
Moot Court Room
11:00 a.m. to noon

NOVEMBER 1986

- November 3-7
Pre-registration for Spring
Semester 1987
- November 5
3L Composite Pictures Taken
by Ray Wolf - Room 104 -
3:00-9:00 p.m. - see Tim
Warnock for details
- November 6
Survival Seminar
- November 8
Homecoming - Open House
- November 13-15
Regionals of National Moot
Court Competition
- November 26
On Campus Interviews End
- November 27-28
Thanksgiving Holidays

YOU SHOULD KNOW...

EDITORIAL BOARD APPLICATION PROCEDURES ANNOUNCED

The Tennessee Judicial Newsletter is holding its Editorial Board selection process during the first two weeks of October. All second- and third-year law students are encouraged to try out. The Board is generally composed of six members and is selected by the current Editor-in-Chief. The function of the Board is to assist the Editor-in-Chief in preparing the Tennessee Judicial Newsletter for publication and distribution to its subscribers. The duties of the board members include editing case summaries, acquiring articles, and writing articles and summaries when necessary. Students interested in becoming a member of the Editorial Board of the Tennessee Judicial Newsletter should pick up the information packet in the Public Law Institute, Suite 14. Application deadline: Monday, October 13.

SURVIVAL SEMINAR

Sponsored by the Knoxville Barristers
Thursday, November 6, 1986
 Small Assembly Room, in the City-County Building
 For further information: call
 Cecilia Lambert 525-5134; or
 Robyn Askew 522-4400; or
 Tom Mabry 546-8706

WE'RE HERE FOR YOU

The following is a correction and addition from September's Taylor Times.

- Room Reservations -
Ann Higgins in the Records Office
- Student Organizations -
Julie Hardin or Betty Stuart in PLI

GERALD MCGINLEY TO STAY "DOWN UNDER"

Professor Gerald McGinley has found Adelaide, Australia to his liking and has decided to resign his position as a law professor at GCT. He invites everyone to stop by when they are "in the neighborhood."

JOHN SOBIESKI SELECTED AS LINDSAY YOUNG PROFESSOR OF LAW

On the recommendation of the Acting Dean and with the approval of the Provost and Chancellor, John L. Sobieski, Jr., who has been with the College of Law since 1972, has been selected as the Lindsay Young Professor of Law. Congratulations, John!

MOOT COURT TEAM TRYOUTS

Watch the Moot Court Bulletin Board for tryout information for the following teams: International, Tax, Labor, and National Trial. October dates are scheduled for each.

A RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS? MOOT COURT DEBATE PLANNED THIS FALL

On Wednesday, October 29, the Knoxville-Knox County Constitution Bicentennial Commission, the University of Tennessee College of Law, and the SBA will sponsor a Moot Court program on the subject of the right to bear arms. Law students will argue the constitutional issues in an appellate argument format, then the presiding judge will open the discussion to the audience and elicit reactions and comments.

The basis for the argument will be the adoption of a fictitious city ordinance prohibiting the possession of all firearms above a certain caliber and the arrest of a citizen for violating the ordinance.

This moot court "debate" will be held in the Moot Court Room from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The public will be invited and encouraged to participate.

If you are interested in participating, please see Scott Davis, Dean Julie Hardin or Betty Stuart in the Public Law Institute.

BENCH-BAR CONFERENCE

Hyatt Regency Hotel
November 14 - 9:00 to 4:30
The purpose of this conference is to improve and encourage communication between the Bench and the Bar. It is free to law students. Moderators will be presenting areas of difficulty as seen by judges and lawyers.

NATIONAL MOOT COURT REGIONALS TO BE HOSTED BY GCT NOVEMBER 13-15

The University of Tennessee College of Law will host other regional colleges for this year's National Moot Court Competition. Susan Bartell, Kate Stephenson, and Lynn Taylor will represent GCT, and compete against teams from L.S.U., Vanderbilt, Tulane, Loyola, the University of Mississippi, Mississippi College, Memphis State University, the University of Alabama, Southern University, and Cumberland College. We wish our team luck, and look forward to all the others being with us.

STUDENTS - WANT YOUR MONEY?

In order to pick up a check (such as a loan check) from the Bursar's Office, you must bring your fee receipt and your ID with you. It may seem an inconvenience, but that's the rules.

CAREER SERVICES

Hours: 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Ms. Gillespie's hours for career counseling or resume consultation:
By appointment: 10-11:00 a.m.
& 2-4:00 p.m.
Walk-in: 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

SOUTHEASTERN LAW PLACEMENT CONSORTIUM, INC.

1986 Recruiting Conference
The Waverly Hotel
Atlanta, Georgia
October 9-11

STAT-WORK

Question: How can I earn extra money without committing 15 to 20 hours a week to a part-time job?

Answer: Sign up on the STAT roster!

Question: What can I do to gain practical hands on experience in my particular areas of interest?

Answer: Sign up on the STAT roster!

Question: What is STAT?

Answer: Employers frequently call Career Services seeking students for temporary assignments such as updating a firm library, drafting a legal document, researching a case, or filling in for a vacationing clerk.

Students on the STAT roster are contacted and given a brief summary of the type of work needed and the expected duration. If interested, the student is referred directly to the employer to discuss details and salary arrangements. There is no limit to the number of times students may accept or decline a STAT referral.

Question: How do I get my name on the STAT roster?

Answer: Getting on the STAT roster is simple--just come down to Career Services and sign up.

FACULTY/STAFF NEWS

PROF. GARY ANDERSON ...
... is working with the School of Social Work on an "Alternative Sentencing Project."

ALLEN BOYER ...
... has been asked by The New York Times to review Of Prisons and Ideas by Milovan Djilas.
... will review Nights in the Gardens of Brooklyn by Harvey Swadlow for The Cleveland Plain Dealer.

... will review for Modern Fiction Studies, a scholarly journal from Purdue: A Biography of James Jones, by Frank MacShane; A Biography of Dashiell Hammett, by Julian Symons; and The American Private Eye, by David Geherin.

NEIL COHEN ...
... serves as an ad hoc member of the Tennessee Sentencing Commission which is rewriting the penal code and sentencing structure for the state.

... is a consultant to the Tennessee Supreme Court's Advisory Commission on Civil Procedure which has been writing a proposed code of evidence for Tennessee for the past two years.

JOSEPH COOK ...
... will coordinate the regional of the National Moot Court Competition to be held at GCT in November.

LARRY DESSEM ...
... spent a week this summer at the University of New Mexico Law School working with the computer software that the Legal Clinic has acquired.
... is assisting in the trial of one of the cases he previously handled for the Department of Justice.
... wrote an article on congressional standing to sue which will be published later this year in the Notre Dame Law Review.

GRAYFRED GRAY ...
... read his poetry at the Wrangler Restaurant, Friday, September 26 along with three other Knoxville poets.

JULIE HARDIN ...
... coordinated the annual meeting of the Tennessee General Sessions Judges Conference in Chattanooga, Sept. 17-20.
... is teaching an evening course entitled "Teachers and the Law" through the College of Education this fall.

JIM KIRBY ...
... will promote his new book, Fumble, at the Kentucky Book Fair in Frankfurt, November 22.
... attended The Pittsburgh Press Book and Author Dinner, September 10, in Pittsburgh to answer the question, "Did the truth come out in a famous trial about a possible fix in a Southeastern Conference football game more than 20 years ago?"

JERRY PHILLIPS ...

... continues his work with Governor Alexander's Torts Commission.

CARL PIERCE ...

... served on UT's NEH Fellowship Selection Committee.

NICKI RUSSLER ...

... will serve as Campus Chest coordinator for the College of Law this year.

JOHN SEBERT ...

... is committed to produce a second edition of Remedies: Damages, Equity and Restitution with coauthor Robert S. Thompson of the Southern California Law Center.

DOUG WICKHAM ...

... will be on leave as of January 1987 to be "of counsel" with the Raleigh, North Carolina firm of Sanford, Adams, McCulloch & Beard.

CHERYL MAYS AND JULIE HARDIN HONORED FOR VOLUNTEER EFFORTS

Acting Dean John Sebert escorted Cheryl Mays (Julie Hardin was in Chattanooga with the General Sessions Judges) to a luncheon at Chancellor Reese's home honoring her efforts as a community volunteer. Cheryl, Placement Assistant in Career Services, serves as a volunteer counselor, board member, and trainer for new counselors at the Knoxville Rape Crisis Center. She also counsels unwed mothers at the Florence Crittenton Home. In addition, Cheryl is helping with a new home for battered women being sponsored by Volunteers of America, and she will be a delegate to the Bicentennial Constitutional Convention being held in Nashville.

Julie Hardin, the Associate Dean for External Affairs, has devoted extensive efforts over recent years to assure increased attention to the interests of children in our judicial and social service system. Julie chairs the Tennessee Young Lawyers Conference Committee on Child Advocacy, and she recently coordinated the Conference's Missing Children Project. She is now Vice Chair of the American Bar Association/Young Lawyers Division Child Advocacy & Protection Committee. Julie serves as co-director of the Knox Area Mock Trial Competition and is a member of the Steering Committee of the Knoxville-Knox County Constitution Bicentennial Commission.

John Sebert's wife, Suzanne, Director of Welfare and Institutions for Knox County since 1980, has been named as a finalist in the government category of the second annual YWCA Tribute to Women. Congratulations and good luck, Suzanne!

Missy Richmond, Word Processing Specialist, was married to Greg Hankins on September 13 at 7:00 p.m. in the Concord Baptist Church. After honeymooning in Myrtle Beach, Missy and Greg have set up housekeeping in West Knoxville. Here's to many happy, productive years together!

Doug Thompson, a third-year law student, participated in an attempt to apprehend a purse snatcher on, around, and near GCT last week. His efforts have been immortalized in Sam Venable's column in The News-Sentinel. Good work, Doug!

TAYLOR TRIVIA: What GCT professor broke the law daily for over a year until nabbed by an alert Knoxville policeman?

Answer to last month's Taylor Trivia: Dean Julie Hardin

WE WELCOME NEW STAFF MEMBERS!

The new Senior Admissions Clerk in the Admissions Office is Elizabeth (Beth) McNabb. Beth worked as a secretary/receptionist at Furrow Machinery Corporation before coming to GCT. She will enjoy the flex-year job because her parents live in Myrtle Beach.

Diane "De" Burns is the new Senior Library Clerk in the Law Library. De, her husband, and 12-year-old son live in West Knoxville. De managed a department in K-Mart before joining the GCT family. Her hobbies include rappelling, sailing her 21-foot sailboat, playing concert piano, painting landscapes in oil, and keeping scores for her husband's baseball teams. De also holds a Federal Firearms License which means she can reload.

Welcome, Beth and De!

Direct inquiries and submit material for publication to J. Hardin or B. Stuart.

"Taylor Times" is published as a service to the students, staff, and faculty of the University of Tennessee College of Law.

No promises are made, but look for it once a month.
