FYI

THE COLLEGE OF LAW PROVIDES AFTER-HOURS MESSAGE SERVICE

Due to the large number of telephone calls the College receives after 5:00 p.m., an answering service operates between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. If an emergency arises, a message can be left by dialing either 974-4241 or 974-2521. The Dean's Office will forward all messages received after 5:00 p.m. to the appropriate person or office the next working day.

TAYLOR TRIVIA: In what year was the first Hooding ceremony held? Answer to last month's Taylor Trivia: The University of Tennessee College of Law's Legal Clinic was established in 1947. It was the first American clinic with its own offices built in the school. Professor Charles Miller was the director. A major element of the College's public service program is the Legal Clinic.

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, religion, national origin, age, handicap, or veteran status in provision of educational opportunities or employment opportunities and benefits. UT does not discriminate on the basis of sex or handicap in the education programs and activities which it operates, pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Public Law 92-318, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Public Law 93-112, respectively. This policy extends to both employment by and admission to the University. Inquiries concerning Title IX and Section 504 should be directed to the Director of Affirmative Action, 403B Andy Holt Tower, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN 37996-0144, telephone 615/974-2498. Charges of violation of the above policy should also be directed to the office of the Director of Affirmative Action.

Purchase of computers: Students may purchase computers at substantial discounts in room 244 of the University Center (974-2930).

Nick McCall Wins First Hunton & Williams Outstanding Writing Award

The law firm of Hunton & Williams, Richmond, VA, and Knoxville, TN, has established a writing award for first-year law students. The award recipients are selected by members of the firm from writing samples submitted to the firm by College of Law faculty members who teach Legal Process II. (Prof. Grayfred Gray is the coordinator of Legal Process II.)

Seven briefs (without any author identification) were sent to Hunton & Williams in June to be considered for the first award of $250. The first-year finalists were Lance Baker, James Cornelius, Tony Dalton, Karen Fair, Kathryn Leiderman, Nick McCall, and Sharon Tranchant. The brief written by Nick McCall was selected to receive the first award.

Jack H. (Nick) McCall of Franklin, TN, is a graduate of Vanderbilt. He was on the Dean's List both semesters of his first year of law school and received the American Jurisprudence award for Legal Process I.
