

T.C.A. § 28-3-105. Torts; property

The following actions shall be commenced within three (3) years from the accruing of the cause of action:

- (1) Actions for injuries to personal or real property;
- (2) Actions for the detention or conversion of personal property; and
- (3) Civil actions based upon the alleged violation of any federal or state statute creating monetary liability for personal services rendered, or liquidated damages or other recovery therefore, when no other time of limitation is fixed by the statute creating such liability.