STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS FOR
REPUBLIC AIRWAYS SERVICES, INC.
(CASE NO. 16-10426 (SHL))

---

1. The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases are the following entities: Republic Airways Services, Inc.; Shuttle America Corporation; Republic Airline Inc.; Republic Airways Holdings Inc.; Midwest Air Group, Inc.; Midwest Airlines, Inc.; and Skyway Airlines, Inc. The Debtors' employer tax identification numbers and addresses are set forth in their respective chapter 11 petitions.

GLOBAL NOTES AND STATEMENT OF LIMITATIONS, METHODOLOGY, AND DISCLAIMER REGARDING
DEBTORS' SCHEDULES AND STATEMENTS

The Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (the "Schedules") and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Statements") filed by Republic Airways Holdings Inc. ("RAH"), and certain of its wholly-owned direct and indirect subsidiaries, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively with RAH, "Republic" or the "Debtors") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") were prepared pursuant to section 521 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and Rule 1007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") by the Debtors' management with the assistance of their advisors and are unaudited.

THE SCHEDULES, STATEMENTS AND GLOBAL NOTES SHOULD NOT BE RELIED UPON BY ANY PERSON FOR INFORMATION RELATING TO CURRENT OR FUTURE FINANCIAL CONDITIONS, EVENTS OR PERFORMANCE OF ANY OF THE DEBTORS. DUE TO NUMEROUS UNLIQUIDATED, CONTINGENT AND/OR DISPUTED CLAIMS, SUMMARY STATISTICS IN THE SCHEDULES, STATEMENTS AND GLOBAL NOTES LIKELY SIGNIFICANTLY UNDERSTATE THE DEBTORS' LIABILITIES.

Each of the Debtors has herewith filed separate Schedules and Statements. These Global Notes and Statement of Limitations, Methodology, and Disclaimers Regarding Debtors' Schedules and Statements ("Global Notes") relate to each of the Debtors' Schedules and Statements and set forth the basis upon which the Schedules and Statements are presented. These Global Notes comprise an integral part of the Schedules and Statements and should be referred to and considered in connection with any review of the Schedules and Statements. The Global Notes are in addition to any specific notes contained in any Debtor's Schedules or Statements. Disclosure of information in one Schedule, Statement, exhibit, or continuation sheet, even if incorrectly placed, shall be deemed to be disclosed in the correct Schedule, Statement, exhibit, or continuation sheet.

The Schedules and Statements remain subject to further review and verification by the Debtors. Subsequent information may result in material changes to the Schedules and Statements, and because the Schedules and Statements contain unaudited information that is subject to further review and potential adjustment, there can be no assurance that these Schedules and Statements are complete. The Debtors reserve their right to amend their Schedules and Statements from time to time as may be necessary or appropriate, including the right to dispute or otherwise assert offsets or defenses to any claim reflected on the Schedules and Statements as to amount, liability or classification, or to otherwise subsequently designate any claim as "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated." Nothing contained in the Schedules and Statements shall constitute a waiver of any of the Debtors' rights with respect to these chapter 11 cases and specifically with respect to any issues involving substantive consolidation, equitable subordination or causes of action arising under the provisions of chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and other relevant non-bankruptcy laws to recover assets or avoid transfers. These Global Notes are incorporated by reference in, and comprise an integral part of, the Schedules and Statements, and should be referred to and considered in connection with any review of the Schedules and Statements.

1. Description of the Cases and “As Of” Information Date. On February 25, 2016 (the “Commencement Date”), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition with the Bankruptcy Court for reorganization under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered for procedural purposes only under case number 16-10429 (SHL). The Debtors are authorized to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Each Debtor’s current fiscal year ends on December 31. All information, except where otherwise noted, is as of the Commencement Date.

2. Basis of Presentation. For financial reporting purposes, the Debtors prepare consolidated financial statements that are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and that are audited annually. Unlike the consolidated financial statements, these Schedules and Statements reflect the separate assets and liabilities of each individual Debtor. These Schedules and Statements do not purport to represent financial statements prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States (“GAAP”); neither are they intended to reconcile to the financial statements filed by the Debtors with the SEC.

3. Amendment. Reasonable efforts have been made to prepare and file complete and accurate Schedules and Statements. Despite these efforts, inadvertent errors or omissions may exist. The Debtors reserve all rights to, but are not required to, amend or supplement, or both, the Schedules and Statements from time to time as is necessary and appropriate.

4. Recharacterization. The Debtors have made reasonable efforts to correctly characterize, classify, categorize, and designate assets, liabilities, executory contracts, unexpired leases, and other items reported in the Schedules and Statements. However, due to the complexity and size of the Debtors’ business and operations, the Debtors may have improperly characterized, classified, categorized, or designated certain items. The Debtors thus reserve all of their rights to recharacterize, reclassify, recategorize, or redesignate items reported in the Schedules and Statements as necessary or appropriate as additional information becomes available.

5. Confidentiality. In certain instances in the Schedules and Statements, the Debtors have deemed it necessary and appropriate to redact from the public record addresses of individuals because of concerns for the privacy of, or otherwise to preserve the confidentiality of, personally identifiable information.

6. Summary of Significant Reporting Policies. The Debtors use a consolidated cash management system through which the Debtors collect substantially all receipts and pay liabilities and expenses. As a result, certain payments in the Schedules and Statements may have been made prepetition by one entity on behalf of another entity through the operation of the consolidated cash management system. A description of the Debtors’ prepetition cash management system is in the Debtors’ Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 346(b), 363(b), 363(c), 364(a), 503(b) & 507(a) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003 & 6004 for Entry of an Interim and Final Orders (i) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Continue Using Existing Cash Management System, (B) Honor Certain Prepetition Obligations Related to the Use Thereof, (C) Provide Postpetition

Intercompany Claims Administrative Expense Priority, and (D) Maintain Existing Bank Accounts and Business Forms and (ii) Waiving the Requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 345(b) dated February 25, 2016 [ECF No. 6].

7. Currency. Unless otherwise indicated, all amounts are reflected in U.S. dollars.

8. Valuation. It would be prohibitively expensive, unduly burdensome, and an inefficient use of estate assets for the Debtors to obtain current market valuations of all of their assets. Accordingly, unless otherwise indicated, the Schedules and Statements reflect net book values as of the Commencement Date. Certain other assets are listed at undetermined amounts, as the net book values may differ materially from fair market values or the amounts ultimately realized. In addition, certain depreciable assets with a net book value of zero may be included for completeness. The Debtors do not intend to amend these Schedules and Statements to reflect actual values

9. Estimates. To close the books and records of the Debtors as of the Commencement Date, management was required to make estimates, allocations and assumptions that affect the amounts of assets and liabilities as of the Commencement Date.

10. Inventories. Consumable and expendable parts and maintenance supplies related to flight equipment are scheduled as machinery, equipment and vehicles and are carried at average cost. Spare parts and supplies are recorded as inventory when purchased and charged to expense as used. A fleet retirement reserve for spare parts expected to be on hand at the date the aircraft are retired from service is provided over the remaining estimated useful life of the related aircraft equipment. An allowance for spare parts currently identified as obsolete or excess is also provided. Additionally, all inventories and plant and equipment are presented without consideration of any statutory or consensual liens.

11. Property and Equipment. Unless otherwise indicated, owned property and equipment are stated at net book value. The Debtors may lease furniture, fixtures, and equipment from certain third party lessors. Such leases are in the Schedules and Statements, subject to the reservation of rights set forth in paragraph 12 herein.

12. Leases. The Debtors have not included in the Schedules and Statements the future obligations of any leases. To the extent that there was an amount due as of the Commencement Date, the creditor has been included in Schedule F. All lease agreements have been included in Schedule G. Nothing herein or in the Schedules or Statements shall be construed as a concession, admission or evidence as to the determination of the legal status of any leases identified in the Schedules or Statements, including whether such leases: (i) constitute an executory contract within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law; or (ii) have not expired or been terminated or otherwise are not current in full force and effect, and the Debtors reserve all of their rights.

13. Causes of Action. Despite their reasonable efforts to identify all known assets, the Debtors may not have listed all of their causes of action or potential causes of action against third parties as assets in their Schedules and Statements, including, without limitation, avoidance actions arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and actions under other relevant non-bankruptcy laws to recover assets. The Debtors reserve all of their rights with respect to any claims, causes of action or avoidance actions they may have, and neither these Global Notes nor the Schedules and Statements shall be deemed a waiver of any such claims, causes of action, or avoidance actions or in any way prejudice or impair the assertion of such claims.

14. Taxes. Claims listed on the Debtors' Schedule E include claims owing to various taxing authorities to which the Debtors may potentially be liable. However, certain of such claims may be subject to on-going audits and the Debtors are otherwise unable to determine with certainty the amount of many, if not all, of the claims listed on Schedule E. Therefore, the Debtors have listed estimated claim amounts, where possible, or alternatively listed such claims as undetermined in amount and marked the claims as unliquidated, pending final resolution of ongoing audits or other outstanding issues. The Debtors reserve their right to dispute or challenge whether such claims are entitled to priority.

15. Future Aircraft and Aircraft Engine Purchases. To the extent applicable, the Debtors have not included in the Schedules and Statements any future purchase commitments or the related amounts to be paid in connection with the purchase of aircraft or aircraft engines.

16. Employee Claims. The Bankruptcy Court entered first day orders granting the authority, but not the obligation, to the Debtors to pay certain prepetition employee wages, salaries, severance, benefits and other obligations in the ordinary course. Accordingly, only employee-related claims for prepetition amounts due that have not been paid as of the time that the Schedules and Statements were prepared by the Debtors, including employee-related claims for items not authorized to be paid by order of the Bankruptcy Court, have been included in the Schedules and Statements.

17. Clearinghouse Agreements. The Bankruptcy Court entered first day orders granting the authority, but not the obligation, to the Debtors to make certain payments of prepetition obligations relating to certain clearinghouse agreements. Accordingly, related liabilities that have been paid as of the Commencement Date have been excluded from Schedule F, although the agreements may be listed on Schedule G.

18. Other Claims Paid Pursuant to Court Orders. Pursuant to certain orders of the Bankruptcy Court entered in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, the Debtors were authorized (but not directed) to pay, among other things, certain prepetition claims of foreign creditors, shippers, warehousemen, critical vendors and certain other prepetition creditors. Accordingly, these liabilities may have been or may be satisfied in accordance with those orders, and therefore may not be listed in the Schedules and Statements.

19. Insiders. The Debtors have included all payments and awards made over the twelve months preceding the filing to executive officers and the members of the board of directors. Included in the value reflected are cash payments to or for the benefit of the insider (inclusive of payroll, bonus and other employee benefits paid in cash), stock options valued at fair value at the grant date, performance shares and restricted stock grants valued at the closing price of the stock at the grant date, without reference to vesting. Persons have been included in the Statements for informational purposes only, and the listing of an individual as an insider is not intended to be and should not be construed as a legal characterization of that person as an insider and does not act as an admission of any fact, claim, right or defense, and all such rights, claims and defenses are reserved. Further the Debtors do not take any position concerning (a) the person's influence over the control of the Debtors, (b) the person's management responsibilities and functions, (c) the person's decision-making or corporate authority, or (d) whether the person could successfully argue that he or she is not an insider under applicable law, including federal securities law, or any theories of liability or for any other purpose.

20. Intercompany Transactions. All intercompany payments between the Debtors have not been included in the Statements. Instead, intercompany balances as of the Commencement Date have been listed on Schedule F for the relevant debtor.

21. Excluded Assets and Liabilities. The Debtors may have excluded from the Schedules certain of the following items, which may be included in their GAAP financial statements: intercompany receivables, investments in subsidiaries, certain accrued liabilities, including, without limitation, accrued salaries, employee benefit accruals, and certain other accruals, capitalized interest, debt acquisition costs, restricted cash, goodwill, financial instruments, certain other assets, and deferred revenues and gains. Other non-material assets and liabilities may also have been excluded. The Debtors have reflected intercompany balances as of the Commencement Date on Schedule F for the relevant debtor.

22. Litigation. Certain litigation actions reflected as claims against one Debtor may relate to any of the other Debtors. The Debtors have made commercially reasonable efforts to record these actions in the Schedules and Statements of the Debtor that is party to the action.

In addition, the Debtors have excluded details relating to federal and state agency discrimination charges, labor arbitration and grievance claims, and government investigations and civil penalty actions. Discrimination charges have been excluded to protect the privacy interests of the charging parties and because the majority of such claims generally will not result in actual litigation. Labor arbitration and grievance claims are omitted to protect the privacy interests of the grieving party. Government investigations and notices civil penalty actions were excluded due to confidentiality and privacy concerns or because the majority of such claims are for de minimis amounts, have been promptly remediated or will not ultimately give rise to a civil penalty.

23. Claim Description. Any failure to designate a claim in the Schedules and Statements as "contingent," "unliquidated," or "disputed" does not constitute an admission that such claim or amount is not "contingent," "unliquidated," or "disputed." The Debtors reserve all of their rights to dispute, or to assert offsets or defenses to, any claim reflected on these Schedules on any grounds, including, without limitation, amount, liability, priority, status, or classification, or to otherwise subsequently designate any claim as "contingent," "unliquidated," or "disputed." Moreover, the Debtors reserve all of their rights to, but are not required to, amend their Schedules and Statements as necessary and appropriate, including modifying claims descriptions and designations.

24. Debt Representatives. Claims relating to the repayment of principal, interest and other fees and expenses under agreements governing any syndicated credit facility or debt security issued by or for the benefit of the Debtors pursuant to an indenture where the identities of the lenders or other parties in interest are not known with certainty are scheduled listing the administrative agent under the applicable credit facility or the indenture trustee on behalf of the lenders or other parties in interest.

25. Unliquidated Claim Amounts. Claim amounts that could not be readily quantified by the Debtors are scheduled as “unliquidated.” To the extent the Debtors are able to ascertain or estimate all or a portion of the claim amounts, they may have listed the known or estimated claim amount and marked the claims as unliquidated, pending final resolution of outstanding issues necessary to determine the total claim amount with certainty.

26. Liabilities. The Debtors have sought to allocate liabilities between prepetition and postpetition periods based on the information and research that was conducted in connection with the preparation of the Schedules and Statements. As additional information becomes available and further research is conducted, the allocation of liabilities between prepetition and postpetition periods may change. The Debtors reserve their right to, but are not required to, amend the Schedules and Statements as they deem appropriate to reflect this.

27. Guarantees and Other Second Liability Claims. The Debtors have used commercially reasonable efforts to locate and identify guarantees and other secondary liability claims (collectively, the “Guarantees”) in their executory contracts, unexpired leases, secured financings, debt instruments, and other such agreements. Where Guarantees have been identified, they have been included in the relevant Schedules F and H for the affected Debtor or Debtors. Guarantees have generally been included in Schedules of the guarantor Debtor as “contingent” unless otherwise specified. Certain Guarantees embedded in the Debtors’ executory contracts, unexpired leases, secured financings, debt instruments, and other such agreements may have been inadvertently omitted. Thus, the Debtors reserve all of their rights to, but are not required to, amend the Schedules if additional Guarantees are identified.

28. Self Insured. The Debtors are self-insured for medical, dental, and vision plans. To the extent such plans are administered, the administrators of the plans have been listed on Schedule G.

29. Intellectual Property Rights. Exclusion of certain intellectual property shall not be construed to be an admission that those intellectual property rights have been sold, abandoned, or terminated, or otherwise have expired by their terms, or have been assigned or otherwise transferred pursuant to a sale, acquisition, or other transaction. Conversely, inclusion of certain intellectual property shall not be construed to be an admission that those intellectual property rights have not been abandoned, have not been terminated, or otherwise have not expired by their terms, or have not been assigned or otherwise transferred pursuant to a sale, acquisition, or other transaction. Accordingly, the Debtors reserve all of their rights as to the legal status of all intellectual property rights.

30. Totals. All totals that are included in the Schedules and Statements represent totals of all the known amounts included in the Schedules and Statements and exclude items identified as “undetermined” or “unliquidated.” To the extent that there are undetermined or unliquidated amounts, the actual totals may be materially different from the listed totals.

31. Schedule D: Creditors Holding Secured Claims. Except as otherwise agreed pursuant to a stipulation or agreed order or general order entered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors reserve their rights to dispute or challenge the validity, perfection or immunity from avoidance of any lien purported to be granted or perfected in any specific asset to a secured creditor listed on Schedule D of any Debtor. Certain claims are listed on Schedule D as “unliquidated” because the value of the collateral securing such claims is unknown. Moreover, although the Debtors may have scheduled claims of various creditors as secured claims, the Debtors reserve all rights to dispute or challenge the secured nature of any such creditor’s claim or the characterization of the structure of any such transaction or any document or instrument (including without limitation, any intercompany agreement) related to such creditor’s claim. In certain instances, a Debtor may be a co-obligor, co-mortgagor or guarantor with respect to scheduled claims of other Debtors, and no claim set forth on Schedule D of any Debtor is intended to acknowledge claims of creditors that are otherwise satisfied or discharged by other entities. The descriptions provided in Schedule D are intended only to be a summary. Reference to the applicable loan agreements and related documents is necessary for a complete description of the collateral and the nature, extent and priority of any liens. Nothing in the Global Notes or the Schedules and Statements shall be deemed a modification or interpretation of the terms of such agreements.

The amounts listed in Schedule D for loans related to aircraft purchases are principal amounts due as of the Commencement Date. In certain instances, both prepetition and postpetition interest, as well as scheduled principal payments, has been paid to creditors since the Commencement Date. Further payments of interest and principal are expected to be made pursuant to elections made by the Debtors, or stipulations entered into by the Debtors and certain aircraft financiers or related parties, pursuant to section 1110 of the Bankruptcy Code.

32. Schedule E: Creditors Holding Priority Claims. Listing a claim on Schedule E as priority does not constitute an admission by the Debtors of the claimant’s legal rights or a waiver of the Debtors’ right to recharacterize or reclassify the claim or contract. The Bankruptcy Court entered a number of first day orders granting authority to pay certain prepetition priority claims. Accordingly, only claims against Debtors for prepetition amounts that have not been paid as of the Commencement Date have been included in Schedule E. The Debtors reserve their rights to object to any listed claims on the ground that, among other things, they have already been satisfied.

33. Schedule F: Creditors Holding Unsecured Non-Priority Claims. Schedule F does not include certain deferred charges, deferred liabilities or general reserves. Such amounts are general estimates of liabilities and do not represent specific claims as of the Commencement Date; however, they are reflected on the Debtors’ books and records as required in accordance with GAAP.

The claims listed in Schedule F arose or were incurred on various dates. In certain instances, the date on which a claim arose is an open issue of fact. While commercially reasonable efforts have been made, determining the date upon which each claim in Schedule F was incurred or arose would be, in certain cases, unduly burdensome and cost prohibitive and, therefore, the Debtors have not listed a date for each claim listed on Schedule F. Schedule F may contain information regarding potential, pending and closed litigation involving the Debtors. In certain instances, the Debtor that is the subject of the litigation is unclear or undetermined. However, to the extent that litigation involving a particular Debtor has been identified, such information is contained in the Schedule for that Debtor. The inclusion of any litigation in these Schedules and Statements does not constitute an admission by any Debtor of liability, the validity of any action, the availability of insurance coverage, or the amount or treatment of any claims, defenses, counterclaims, or cross-claims or the amount or treatment of any potential claim resulting from any current or future litigation. The Debtors have generally excluded internal grievance claims to protect the privacy interests of the grieving party and because the majority of such claims generally will not result in actual litigation. In addition, certain litigation or claims covered by insurance policies maintained by the Debtors may be excluded from Schedule F.

The claims of individual creditors are generally listed at the amounts recorded on the Debtors' books and records and may not reflect credits or allowances due from the creditor. The Debtors reserve all of their rights concerning credits or allowances.

The Bankruptcy Court entered first day orders granting authority to the Debtors to pay certain prepetition obligations in the ordinary course of business. Accordingly, only claims against the Debtors for prepetition amounts that have not been paid as of the Commencement Date have been included in Schedule F. The Debtors reserve their rights to object to any listed claims on the ground that, among other things, they have already been satisfied.

34. Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Annexed Leases. The businesses of the Debtors are complex. While commercially reasonable efforts have been made to ensure the accuracy of Schedule G, inadvertent errors, omissions or over-inclusions may have occurred. The Debtors hereby reserve all of their rights to dispute the validity, status, or enforceability of any contracts, agreements or leases set forth in Schedule G and to amend or supplement such Schedule as necessary. The contracts, agreements and leases listed on Schedule G may not have taken effect or be binding on any party and may have expired or been modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time by various amendments, restatements, waivers, estoppel certificates, letter and other documents, instruments and agreements which may not be listed therein.

Certain of the real property leases and contracts listed on Schedule G may contain renewal options, guarantees of payments, options to purchase, rights of first refusal, rights to lease additional space and other miscellaneous rights. Such rights, powers, duties and obligations are not set forth on Schedule G.

Nothing herein shall be construed as a concession or evidence that any of the contracts, agreements or leases identified on Schedule G: (i) constitute an executory contract within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law; or (ii) have not expired or been terminated or otherwise are not current in full force and effect.

The Debtors reserve all of their rights, claims and causes of action with respect to the contracts and agreements listed on the Schedule, including the right to dispute or challenge the characterization or the structure of any transaction, document, or instrument. Certain of these contracts or leases may have been modified, amended or supplemented by various documents, instruments or agreements that may not be listed, but are nonetheless incorporated by this reference. Certain executory agreements may not have been memorialized in writing and could be subject to dispute. Schedule G generally does not include stand-alone equipment purchase orders.

Due to the voluminous, and in many instances proprietary, nature of certain executory contracts, they are not listed on Schedule G individually, but as a group. Information regarding these contracts is available upon request from the Debtors subject to entry into appropriate confidentiality agreements.

Certain of the contracts, agreements and leases listed on Schedule G may have been entered into by more than one of the Debtors. Such contracts, agreements and leases are listed on Schedule G of each such Debtor.

To the extent any executory contracts or unexpired leases have been assumed or rejected pursuant to order of the Bankruptcy Court entered on or before the date the Schedules and Statements are filed, such executory contracts and leases have not been included in Schedule G. Claims against the Debtors for prepetition amounts owing under contracts set forth on Schedule G that have not been paid as of the Commencement Date have been included in Schedule F.

35. Schedule H: Co-Debtors. In the ordinary course of their businesses, the Debtors are involved in pending or threatened litigation and claims arising out of the conduct of their businesses. These matters may involve multiple plaintiffs and defendants, some or all of whom may assert cross-claims and counter-claims against other parties. Because such claims are listed elsewhere in the Schedules and Statements, they have not been set forth individually on Schedule H.

Schedule H also reflects guarantees by various Debtors. The Debtors may not have identified certain guarantees that are embedded in the Debtors' executory contracts, unexpired leases, secured financings, debt instruments and other such agreements. Further, the Debtors believe that certain of the guarantees reflected on Schedule H may have expired or are no longer enforceable. Thus, the Debtors reserve their right to amend the Schedules to the extent that additional guarantees are identified or such guarantees are discovered to have expired or are unenforceable.

Schedule H is furnished for informational purposes only to apprise parties in interest of co-debtor relationships of the Debtors as of the Commencement Date and is derived from documents in the possession of the Debtors. It is not an admission or recognition that any co-debtor liability exists or existed.

36. Question 6: Setoffs. The Debtors routinely incur setoffs from third parties during the ordinary course of business. Setoffs in the ordinary course can result from various routine transactions, including intercompany transactions, counterparty settlements (in particular, interline ticketing setoffs with other carriers), pricing discrepancies, and other disputes between the Debtors and third parties. Certain of these constitute normal setoffs consistent with the ordinary course of business in the Debtors' industry. In such instances, such ordinary course setoffs are excluded from the Debtors' responses to Question 6 of the Statements. The Debtors reserve all rights to enforce or challenge, as the case may be, any setoffs that have been or may be asserted.

37. Question 21: Property Held for Another. The response to Question 21 of the Statements for applicable Debtors discloses aircraft parts owned by a supplier and held on consignment by the Debtors. The response excludes property borrowed temporarily from other carriers since, in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors exchange parts with other airlines for brief periods to address urgent operational needs. Aircraft equipment provided under a formal lease is listed in Schedule G.

38. Question 26(d): Financial Statements. Consolidated financial statements have been sent to a variety of financial institutions and insurance companies in the past two years. Consolidated financial statements of Republic were filed with the SEC quarterly and are available to parties in interest for the two years preceding the Commencement Date.
