ORDER REGARDING PRO SE LETTERS RECEIVED

On November 28, 2016, December 8, 2016, and December 30, 2016, David Albert, Anthony Joyce, and Humberto Cruz, respectively, each filed a letter with the Court sharing their views on the above-captioned Chapter 11 proceeding. See [ECF Nos. 1241, 1380, 1384]. Mr. Albert states that he is a shareholder of common stock in Republic Airways and offers several suggestions relating to the Debtors' bankruptcy. For example, Mr. Albert suggests that the Debtors remain in Chapter 11 bankruptcy until "creditors can be paid in time" and raises concerns about wiping out the stockholders. See [ECF No. 1241]. Mr. Joyce's letter states that he is a stockholder in Republic Airways Holdings and objects to the cancellation of 50 million shares. See [ECF No. 1380]. Mr. Cruz likewise complains of the treatment that Republic shareholders are to receive under the Debtors' proposed plan of reorganization. See [ECF No. 1384].

In light of the content of these letters, the Court will treat them as objections to the Debtors' Second Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, see [ECF No. 1311]; see also [ECF Nos. 1189, 1277], which is scheduled for a hearing on
