Jason Kay's Summary

I have broad background in starting new ventures and helping others out of tight spots. I was formerly the Chief Strategy Officer of THQ, Inc. (NASDAQ: THQ), where I worked with my longtime business partner Jason Rubin on the company's strategic direction and execution, The Company was sold in a 363 auction to multiple buyers in January 2013. Previously, I was the Co-Founder of social game startup Monkey Gods; previously I co-Founded Flektor (sold to Fox Interactive Media), MyCaster (sold to Scour) and have worked as an advisor to IGN (News Corporation), Home Box Office (Time Warner), the largest subscription television business in the world. I started my career as a producer at Activision, and in between my larger projects I've worked as a strategist and advisor to sell companies like Columbia House and the HBO Lab to financial and strategic buyers.

Specialties: Corporate and Business Development, M&A and Corporate Strategy, digital media.
