BACKGROUND

1. On March 2, 2016 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”).

2. The Debtors continue in possession of their respective properties and the management of their respective businesses as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

² Capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the respective Motions.

3. The Debtors operate a retail sporting goods and accessories business. The Debtors obtain a substantial portion of their inventory through consignment arrangements with various consignors, including Sport Write.

4. Prior to the Petition Date, Sport Write and TSA Stores, Inc. (“TSA”) had entered into a consignment agreement (the “Consignment Agreement”), pursuant to which Sport Write periodically consigned goods to TSA for sale in various Sports Authority brand stores across the country. Sport Write’s consigned goods and the proceeds derived therefrom that were in the Debtors’ possession as of the Petition Date are referred to herein collectively as the “Sport Write Property”.

5. At all times during their consignment relationship, including under the Consignment Agreement, the parties acknowledged and agreed that all right, title, and interest in and to any consigned Sport Write goods, including the Sport Write Property, remained with Sport Write and never transferred to TSA. The Agreement expressly provided that:

“[Sport Write] shall retain title to all goods subject to this agreement until the date of sale at which time title shall pass from [Sport Write] to the purchaser of such goods.”

Consignment Agreement, at p. 2 (emphasis added). Thus, in the Consignment Agreement drafted by the Debtors, the Debtors admit that they hold no title to Sport Write’s goods consigned under the Consignment Agreement, including the Sport Write Property. Pursuant to the Consignment Agreement, title to any of Sport Write’s goods transfers, if at all, directly from Sport Write to the ultimate purchaser of such goods.

6. On or about March 15, 2016, the Debtors commenced an adversary proceeding against Sport Write by filing a complaint seeking, among other things, declaratory judgment that the Debtors have a senior interest in the Sport Write Property (the “Complaint”). Sport Write intends to strongly defend the Complaint and reserves the right to seek any and all claims, causes of action, and damages against the Debtors arising out of or relating to the Agreement and/or the Complaint.

7. As a result of pre-petition sales of certain Consigned Merchandise, Sport Write has significant prepetition claims arising from the Debtors' breach of the Consignment Agreement and failure to remit payment.

JOINDER

8. Sport Write objects to any request by the Debtors to sell or grant a security interest in or lien upon the Sport Write Property without Sport Write's consent. Each of the Motions seek to irreparably harm and impair Sport Write's rights in its owned property, either by seeking authority to sell Sport Write's property, or to grant a security interest in or lien upon property outside of the Debtors' estates (to the extent that is arguably possible).

9. Sport Write hereby joins in, and incorporates herein by reference, the ASICS Objection, and adopts the arguments therein as its own. For the reasons stated in the ASICS Objection, Sport Write objects to the Motions.

10. To the extent not inconsistent with the relief sought herein, Sport Write joins in any other objections that may be filed to the Motions.

11. Sport Write reserves the right to make other and further objections to the Motions as appropriate as additional information is provided.

WHEREFORE, Sport Write respectfully requests this Court to (i) modify the Consignment Motion, the GOB Motion and the DIP Motion as requested herein, and (ii) grant such further relief to Sport Write as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.
