REORGANIZED DEBTOR'S
THIRD OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS
(Incorrectly Classified, Insufficiently Documented, and Satisfied Claims)

TO THE HONORABLE BURTON R. LIFLAND,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Crabtree & Evelyn, Ltd., as reorganized debtor (the "Reorganized Debtor"),¹ files this third omnibus objection (the "Third Omnibus Objection") to those claims listed on Exhibit A, Exhibit B and Exhibit C hereto. This Third Omnibus Objection is filed pursuant to section 502 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and Rule 3007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"). The proposed order granting the Third Omnibus Objection is attached hereto as Appendix A. In support of the Third Omnibus Objection, the Reorganized Debtor respectfully represents as follows:

BACKGROUND

General

1. On July 1, 2009, Crabtree & Evelyn, Ltd. (in its capacity as a debtor in possession, the “Debtor”) commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Debtor was authorized to operate its businesses and manage its properties as debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner was appointed in the Debtor’s chapter 11 case.

2. On July 10, 2009, as amended on July 14, 2009, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. On January 14, 2010, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Confirming First Amended Plan of Reorganization Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, as Modified on January 12, 2010 (the “Confirmation Order”, Docket No. 301).

The Schedules and Bar Dates

4. On August 14, 2009, the Debtor filed its schedules of assets and liabilities (as they may be amended, the “Schedules”, Docket No. 150), which identified approximately 1,800 potential creditors of its estate.

5. By order entered on August 20, 2009 (the “Bar Date Order”, Docket No. 157), the Court established October 9, 2009 at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern time) as the general bar date for creditors to file proofs of claim asserting prepetition liabilities against the Debtor (the “General Bar Date”). The Bar Date Order, among other things, also established bar dates for the filing of proofs of claim by governmental units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code), by creditors in response to any amendments to the Schedules and by creditors for claims for damages arising from the rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases (collectively with the General Bar Date, the “Bar Dates”). A notice of the Bar Dates (the “Bar Date Notice”) was served on all known creditors and potential creditors in accordance with the requirements of the Bar Date Order. The Bar Date Notice was published on September 1, 2009 in The New York Times and The Hartford Courant. In addition, bar dates for administrative claims and for claims arising from the rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases pursuant to the Debtor’s plan of reorganization were approved in the Confirmation Order.

Proofs of Claim

6. Approximately 450 unsecured, secured, priority and administrative proofs of claim (collectively, the “Filed Claims”) have been filed in this case. The Reorganized Debtor continues the process of reviewing and reconciling the Filed Claims. As part of its ongoing review, the Reorganized Debtor has reviewed each of the proofs of claim listed on the exhibits hereto and has concluded that each such claim is appropriately objected to on the basis set forth below.

Objections to Proofs of Claim

7. On December 1, 2009, the Court entered the Order Pursuant to Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 3007 and 9019(b) (i) Authorizing the Debtor to File Omnibus Claims Objections and (ii) Approving Procedures for Settling Certain Claims (the “Omnibus Objection Procedures Order”, Docket No. 248) authorizing the Debtor to, among other things, file omnibus objections to claims on numerous grounds. The following omnibus objection complies with the Omnibus Objection Procedures Order as well as the other requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3007.

8. On February 23, 2010, the Reorganized Debtor filed the First Omnibus (Non-Substantive) Objection to Claims (Docket No. 326). On March 31, 2010, the Court entered an order granting the First Omnibus (Non-Substantive) Objection to Claims (Docket No. 349).

9. Contemporaneously herewith, the Reorganized Debtor has filed three additional omnibus claims objections.

10. Pursuant to the Omnibus Objection Procedures Order, the Reorganized Debtor objects to each claim identified on the exhibits hereto. Such objections generally fall into three categories.²

A. Incorrectly Classified Claims (Exhibit A)

11. Each of the claims listed on Exhibit A (the “Incorrectly Classified Claims”) improperly asserts that the underlying liabilities are entitled, in whole or part, to priority or security under the Bankruptcy Code. The Reorganized Debtor has determined that each of the Incorrectly Classified Claims improperly asserts that some or all of the underlying liabilities are entitled to one or more of: (a) priority pursuant to section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) allowance as an administrative expense pursuant to either section 503(b)(9) or another provision of section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (c) secured status pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law.

12. Based on the Reorganized Debtor’s review of its books and records, the Reorganized Debtor has determined that the Incorrectly Classified Claims assert priority, administrative or secured status improperly, because the underlying liabilities do not meet the criteria for such status under the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and/or nonbankruptcy law. Accordingly, the Reorganized Debtor seeks to reclassify the Incorrectly Classified Claims in whole or part to their proper classification.

² Certain of the claims listed on the exhibits hereto may be objectionable on numerous grounds. The Reorganized Debtor may have included certain claims on more than one omnibus claims objection or on more than one exhibit hereto. In addition, as noted below, the Reorganized Debtor reserves all of its rights and defenses, including, among other things, the right to further object to any of the claims referenced on the exhibits hereto on any basis.

13. The Reorganized Debtor seeks to reclassify the Incorrectly Classified Claims to ensure that the claimants listed on Exhibit A do not receive a disproportionately large distribution on account of the asserted liabilities. Without the relief requested herein, (a) the Incorrectly Classified Claims will be entitled to greater distributions relative to other claims in this case and (b) such distributions will diminish the Reorganized Debtor's available cash going forward, as the Reorganized Debtor's estimates of claims do not include the Incorrectly Classified Claims as they are currently classified. Accordingly, by this Third Omnibus Objection, the Reorganized Debtor requests that each Incorrectly Classified Claim be corrected and reclassified as indicated on Exhibit A.

B. Insufficiently Documented Claims (Exhibit B)

14. Each of the claims listed on Exhibit B (the "Insufficiently Documented Claims") were not submitted with sufficient documentation to permit the Reorganized Debtor to ascertain the validity of the claim. Accordingly, the Reorganized Debtor respectfully requests that each Insufficiently Documented Claim be expunged in its entirety.

15. One of the Insufficiently Documented Claims contains no information except for the name and address of the creditor, providing no basis whatsoever upon which the Reorganized Debtor can evaluate the validity of the claim. The other Insufficiently Documented Claim contains incomplete and confusing information, and insufficient documentation upon which to ascertain the claim's validity. These deficiencies have made it impossible for the Reorganized Debtor to meaningfully review the asserted claims.

16. The burden of proof to establish a claim against an estate rests on the claimant and, if a proof of claim does not include sufficient factual support, the proof of claim is not entitled to a presumption of prima facie validity pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f). In re WorldCom, Inc., No. 02-13533, 2005 WL 3832065, at *4 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 29, 2005) (only a claim that alleges facts sufficient to support legal liability to claimant satisfies claimant's initial obligation to file substantiated proof of claim); see also In re Allegheny Intern., Inc., 954 F.2d 167, 174 (3d Cir. 1992) (in its initial proof of claim filing, claimant must allege facts sufficient to support claim); In re Chiro Plus, Inc., 339 B.R. 111, 113 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2006) (claimant bears initial burden of sufficiently alleging claim and establishing facts to support legal liability); In re Armstrong Finishing, L.L.C., No. 99-11576-C11, 2001 WL 1700029, at *2 (Bankr. M.D.N.C. May 2, 2001) (only when claimant alleges facts sufficient to support its proof of claim is it entitled to have claim considered prima facie valid); In re United Cos. Fin. Corp., 267 B.R. 524, 527 (Bankr. D. Del. 2000) (claimant must allege facts sufficient to support legal basis for its claim to have claim make prima facie case). As a result of the failure of the claimants identified on Exhibit B to provide sufficient documentation to permit an understanding of the basis for their claims, those claims do not make out a prima facie case against the Reorganized Debtor.

C. Satisfied Claims (Exhibit C)

17. Each of the claims listed on Exhibit C (the “Satisfied Claims”) asserts a liability that has already been satisfied. The Reorganized Debtor has reviewed and determined that each Satisfied Claim is no longer a valid claim because the claim has already been satisfied in full by the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable.

18. Each claimant is not entitled to recover twice for the same claim. If the Satisfied Claims were to be allowed as filed, the result would be duplicative claims and improper recoveries by claimants. Accordingly, the Reorganized Debtor respectfully requests that each Satisfied Claim be expunged in its entirety.

Reservation of Rights

19. The Reorganized Debtor limits this omnibus objection to the grounds stated herein and reserves all rights and defenses, including, among other things, the right to further object to any of the claims referenced on the exhibits hereto on any basis.

NOTICE

20. The Reorganized Debtor has served notice of this Third Omnibus Objection on: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (Attn: Serene Nakano, Esq.), (ii) Silverman Acampora LLP, 100 Jericho Quadrangle, Suite 300, Jericho, New York 11753 (Attn: Ronald J. Friedman, Esq.) as counsel for Kuala Lumpur Kepong Berhad, as postpetition and exit lender, and (iii) each holder of a claim objected to herein. In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Reorganized Debtor submits that no other or further notice need be provided.

21. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3007, the Reorganized Debtor has provided all claimants affected by the Third Omnibus Objection with at least thirty (30) days' notice of the hearing to consider the Third Omnibus Objection.

22. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by the Reorganized Debtor to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Reorganized Debtor respectfully requests that the Court grant the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as is just and appropriate.
